An Act for altering, explaining, and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament of Scotland, reſpecting Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by the Statute Law of Scotland, as explained by the Judges of the Courts of Law there, many Colliers and Coal-bearers and Salters are in a State of Slavery or Bondage, bound to the Collieries and Salt-works where they work for Life, transferable with the Collieries and Salt-works, when their original Maſters have no further Uſe for them: And whereas Perſons are diſcouraged and prevented from learning the Art or Buſineſs of Colliers or Coal-bearers, and Salters, by their becoming bound to the Collieries and Salt-works for Life, where they ſhall work for the Space of one Year, by means whereof there are not a ſufficient Number of Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters, in Scotland, for working the Quantities of Coal and Salt neceſſarily wanted; and many new-diſcovered Coals remain unwrought, and many are not ſufficiently wrought, nor are there a ſufficient Number of Salters for the Salt-works, to the great Loſs of the Owners and Diſadvantage to the Publick: And whereas the emancipating or ſetting free the Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters in Scotland, who are now in a State of Servitude, gradually and upon reaſonable Conditions, and the preventing others from coming into ſuch a State of Servitude, would be the Means of increaſing the Number of Colliers, Coal-bearers, and Salters, to the great Benefit of the Publick, without doing any Injury to the preſent Maſters, and would remove the Reproach of allowing ſuch a State of Servitude to exiſt in a free Country;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of July, in this preſent Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, no Perſon who ſhall begin to work as a Collier, Coal-bearer, or Salter, or in any other Way in a Colliery or Saltwork, in Scotland, ſhall be bound to ſuch Colliery or Salt-work, or to the Owner thereof, in any other Way or Manner different from what is permitted by the Law of Scotland with regard to Servants and Labourers; and that they ſhall be deemed free, and ſhall enjoy the ſame Privileges, Rights, and Immunities with the reſt of his Majeſty's Subjects, any Law or Uſage in Scotland to the contrary notwithſtanding.

After July 1, 1775, no Perſon who ſhall begin to work as a Collier or Salter in Scotland to be bound in any other Way than other Servants.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Perſons under the Age of Twenty-one Years, upon the ſaid firſt Day of July, employed as Colliers, Coal-bearers, or Salters, in Scotland, and bound to any Colliery or Salt-work, ſhall, after ſeven Years Service from the ſaid firſt Day of July, be free from their Service and Servitude, and at Liberty to engage themſelves as Servants or Labourers in any other Colliery or Salt-work, or in any other Kind of Labour whatever.

Bound Colliers, &c. above 45 Years to be free after three Years.

V. And be it alſo enacted, That all Colliers and Salters, bound to any Colliery or Salt-work in Scotland, above the Age of forty-five Years upon the ſaid firſt Day of July next, ſhall, after three Years, be free and diſcharged from any further Servitude or Bondage to the Colliery or Salt-work to which they are bound.

IX. Provided always, That in caſe it ſhall be proved to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Sheriff, that the Perſon ſo applying by Petition has, ſubſequent to the paſſing of this Act, been guilty of entering into any unlawful Combination with the other Colliers or Salters to leave off working, in order to diſtreſs or injure the Proprietor or Leſſee of ſuch Coal or Salt-work, or in order to compel him to increaſe the Wages or Allowances uſually paid for the ſaid Work; or that the Perſon ſo applying ſhall have wilfully deſerted the ſaid Works; then, and in that Caſe, the Perſon guilty of ſuch Offences ſhall not be intitled to the Benefit of the ſaid Act until the Expiration of two Years after the reſpective Periods at which, in Terms of this Act, he would have been intitled to his Freedom, if he had not been guilty of ſuch Offences.

Reſpondent to any Petition may not remove the Proceedings upon it into the Court of Seſſion.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be competent for the Reſpondent or Reſpondents to ſuch Petition to remove the Proceedings upon it into the Court of Seſſion in Scotland, by Advocation, or to complain of any Decree by Appeal or Suſpenſion, or to ſue for Reduction of any ſuch Decree; and that every Decree upon ſuch Petition, finding and declaring the Freedom of the Petitioner, ſhall be final and concluſive againſt the Perſon to whom the Petitioner was bound.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to repeal two Acts, made in the Parliament of Scotland, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and the fifteenth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Juſticiary in the Highlands, ſo far as relates to the Mac Gregours; and to revive an Act of the ſaid Parliament of the twenty-ſixth Day of April, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, relative to the People called Mac Gregours.

Preamble.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1633, Car. I. recited.

'WHEREAS in the Parliament of Scotland, being the firſt Parliament of King Charles the Firſt, holden at Edinburgh, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three, an Act paſſed, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, ratifying and approving all Acts of Council and of Parliament made theretofore againſt the Clan of Mac Gregour, and ordaining the Clan or People of the Name of Gregour or Mac Gregour, and every one of them, at arriving at the Age of Sixteen, to give Security to the Privy Council of Scotland for their good Behaviour and Obedience; and that the ſaid Clan Gregour ſhould take to them ſome other Surname; and that upon their Failure to appear, it ſhould be lawful to any of his Majeſty's Lieges to take and apprehend them to be preſented to the Privy Council, there to be taken Order with; and if it ſhould happen any of the ſaid Clan Gregour to be hurt, mutilated, or ſlain, the Party ſo doing and their Accomplices ſhould no Ways be ſubject or liable to Law therefore, nor incur any Pain or Skaith in Body or Goods, and ſhould be free of all Purſuit, Criminal or Civil, and the ſame ſhould be holden as good Service done to his Majeſty; and that for the better extinguiſhing and extirpating the ſaid Clan, no Miniſter or Preacher within the Bounds therein mentioned ſhould at any Time thereafter baptize or chriſten any Male Child by the Name of Gregour, and that no Clerk or Notary at any Time coming ſhould make or ſubſcribe any Bond or other Security under the Name of Gregour: And whereas in the firſt Parliament of King Charles the Second, holden at Edinburgh, Anno one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, an Act paſſed, bearing Date the twenty-ſixth Day of April in that Year, whereby his Majeſty, conſidering that thoſe who were formerly deſigned by the Name of Mac Gregour had, during the Troubles, carried themſelves with ſuch Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty as might juſtly wipe off all Memory of their former Miſcarriages, and take off all Mark of Reproach put upon them for the ſame; and his Majeſty being deſirous to reclaim his Subjects from every evil Way, and to give all due Encouragement to ſuch as lived in due Obedience and Submiſſion to his Majeſty's Authority and Laws of the Kingdom, therefore his Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent of his Eſtates of Parliament, reſcinded, caſſed, and annulled the thirtieth Act of the Firſt Parliament of King Charles the Firſt, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and declared the ſame void and null in all Time coming, and that it ſhould be thereafter free to all Perſons come of the Name and Race of the Clan Gregour to keep and make uſe of the ſaid Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, and enjoy all Privileges and Immunities as other Subjects, notwithſtanding the ſaid Act, or any other Acts, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary: And whereas in the Reign of King William and Queen Mary an Act paſſed in the Parliament of Scotland, the fifteenth of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Juſticiary in the Highlands, whereby their Majeſties, with the Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, revived the Act of Parliament of one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three againſt the Clan Gregour, notwithſtanding the ſame was reſcinded in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, which Act reſciſſary their Majeſties did, by this Act, annul and make void: And whereas thoſe Perſons who were the Objects of the aforeſaid Acts did generally give Obedience to the Law, by aſſuming other Names, and many of the Deſcendants of thoſe Perſons now bear the Names that were by them ſo aſſumed: And whereas the Cauſes inductive of the Acts for ſuppreſſing the Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, are now little known, and have long ago ceaſed, and thoſe Acts being incapable of Execution ever ſince the Powers of the Privy Council of Scotland were aboliſhed, many Perſons conſidering them to be ineffect, and for the moſt part obſolete, do now uſe the Name of Mac Gregour: And whereas many Perſons of the Surname of Mac Gregour have found divers Inconveniences ariſing to them from the ſaid Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, particularly by being diſabled, and apprehending themſelves diſabled thereby, from ſuing and defending in their own true Names in Courts of Law and Juſtice in North Britain, and are deſirous to re-aſſume the real Name of their Anceſtors and Families, but are unwilling ſo to do while there is the Appearance of a legal Prohibition ſtanding againſt them; and for as much as they cannot be fully relieved without the Authority of Parliament, may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty (upon the humble Petition of Gregor Drummond, Eſquire, for himſelf and and many others), that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament

Scotland, 1633 and 1693, so far as they respect the Clan Gregour, are by this Act repealed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the said Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made the twenty-sixth Day of April one thousand six hundred and sixty-one, be and the same is hereby revived, and declared to be in full Force and Vigour in Time coming.

CAP. XXX.

Preamble.

Act 14 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating and ascertaining the Weights to be made use of in weighing the Gold and Silver Coin of this Kingdom, it is enacted, That exact Duplicates or Copies of the several Standard Weights therein mentioned shall be delivered to and lodged in the Custody of an Officer, to be from Time to Time appointed for that Purpose, with a Salary not exceeding the yearly Sum of two hundred and fifty Pounds; and that, from and after the Day therein mentioned, all Weights to be made use of for weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin shall be ascertained by the said Duplicates or Copies; and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be just and true, shall, in Testimony thereof, be marked by the said Officer with a Stamp or Mark, which the said Officer is thereby directed to provide; and is also required, upon Application made to him, at all seasonable Hours, to stamp or mark, in Manner therein mentioned, all Weights to be used for weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin which should be brought to him for that Purpose, and which he should find to be just and true, according to the said Duplicates or Copies of the Standard Weights of a Guinea, and of a Shilling, and of the Parts and Multiples thereof respectively, by the said Act directed to be lodged in his Custody, without Fee or Reward, and without wilful Delay: And whereas the Officer appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, in pursuance of the said Act, hath hitherto duly executed the same, but is unable by himself to give that Dispatch therein which the present Demands of the Publick require; and it would greatly tend to the speedy carrying the Intention of the said Act into Execution, if the said Officer were permitted to take a small Fee for the stamping or marking the said Weights, towards reimbursing him the necessary Expence of procuring an extraordinary Number of Assistants adequate to the said Demands, which, as the Law now stands, he is not allowed to do:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for John Whitehurst, the present Officer, and every other Officer to be from Time to Time appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, in pursuance of the said Act, and he and they are hereby respectively authorised and impowered, to ask, demand, and receive, of and from all and every Person and Persons bringing Weights to the said Office, to be stamped or marked in pursuance of the said Act, any Sum of Money not exceeding one Penny for every twelve Weights so stamped or marked before he delivers the same; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

J. Whitehurst impowered to take 1 d. for every twelve Weights stamped.

CAP. XXXI.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Fisheries carried on by his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain and of the British Dominions in Europe have been found to be the best Nurseries for able and experienced Seamen, always ready to man the Royal Navy when Occasions require; and it is therefore of the highest national Importance to give all due Encouragement to the said Fisheries, and to endeavour to secure the annual Return of the Fishermen, Sailors, and others employed therein, to the Ports of Great Britain, and of his Majesty's Dominions before mentioned, at the End of every Fishing Season:' Now, in order to promote these great and important Purposes, and with a View, in the first place, to induce his Majesty's Subjects to proceed early from the Ports of Great Britain to the Banks of Newfoundland, and thereby to prosecute the Fishery on the said Banks to the greatest Advantage, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, the respective Bounties herein after mentioned shall be paid and allowed annually, for eleven Years, for a certain Number of Ships or Vessels employed in the British Fishery on the Banks of Newfoundland, under the Limitations and Restrictions herein after expressed; that is to say, Such Vessels shall appear by their Register to be British built, and owned by his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the ſixth Year of the Reign of her late Ma'jeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America, it is, amongſt other 'Things, enacted, That no Mariner or other Perſon who ſhall ſerve on Board, or be retained to ſerve 'on Board, any Privateer, or Trading Ship or Veſſel, that ſhall be employed in any Part of America, 'nor any Mariner or other Perſon being on Shore in any Part thereof, ſhall be liable to be impreſſed or 'taken away by any Officer or Officers of or belonging to any of her Majeſty's Ships of War, impowered 'by the Lord High Admiral, or any other Perſon whatſoever, unleſs ſuch Mariner ſhall have before de'ſerted from ſuch Ship of War: And whereas the ſaid Privilege or Exemption ſo given by the ſaid Act 'to Mariners ſerving on Board Ships or Veſſels employed in any of the Seas or Ports of the Continent of 'America, or reſiding on Shore there, is prejudicial to the Fiſheries carried on by his Majeſty's Subjects 'of Great Britain and Ireland, and others his Majeſty's Dominions in Europe, and has proved an Encou'ragement to Mariners belonging thereto to deſert in Time of War, or at the Appearance of a War, to 'the Britiſh Plantations on the ſaid Continent of America;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Clauſe, ſo far as it relates to the exempting of Mariners or other Perſons ſerving, or retained to ſerve, in any Ship or Veſſel in the Seas or Ports of the Continent of America, or other Perſons on Shore there, from being impreſſed, be and the ſame is hereby repealed.

'XX. And whereas the immoderate Uſe of Rum and other Spirits, imported into Newfoundland from 'his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America, has been found to be highly detrimental to the Fiſh-

'eries carried on there, and it is therefore proper to endeavour to diminiſh the Conſumption thereof; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, there ſhall be paid in to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for every Gallon of Rum, or other Spirits, which ſhall be brought or imported into the Iſland of Newfoundland from any Britiſh Colony or Plantation on the Continent of America, the Sum of one Shilling Sterling Money of Great Britain; and the ſame ſhall be collected, recovered and paid, to the Amount of the Value of which ſuch nominal Sum bears in Great Britain, and may be received and taken according to the Proportion and Value of five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver; and the ſaid Duty hereby granted ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, except in ſuch Caſes where any Alteration is made by this Act, as any other Duties payable to his Majeſty upon Goods imported into any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America are raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act; and that all the Monies that ſhall ariſe by the ſaid Duty (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, levying, recovering, anſwering, paying, and accounting for the ſame), ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and applied and appropriated to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as the Duties ariſing by that Part of the Cuſtoms, commonly called The Old Subſidy, payable in Great Britain, are applied and appropriated.

Rum, &c. imported into Newfoundland from America, to pay a Duty of 1 s. per Gallon.

How ſuch Duty is to be collected, recovered, and applied.

'XXI. And whereas the Bounties given by an Act of Parliament, made in the eleventh Year of the 'Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Support and Eſtabliſhment of the Greenland 'and Whale Fiſheries, have been found of great Advantage to the Navigation, Trade, and Manufactures 'of this Kingdom; and it is juſt and expedient that the like Bounties which are granted by that Act to 'Ships fitted out from Great Britain, or any of his Majeſty's Dominions in America, for thoſe Fiſheries, 'ſhould in like Manner be granted to Ships fitted out for that Purpoſe from the Kingdom of Ireland;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, the reſpective Bounties herein after mentioned ſhall be allowed for every Ship or Veſſel Britiſh built, and owned by his Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland, and whereof the Captain or Maſter and at leaſt One-third of the Mariners are his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, which ſhall proceed from any Port in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland within the Time limited by this Act on the Whale Fiſhery to the Greenland Seas, and Davis's Streights, and the adjacent Seas, under the ſeveral Rules and Reſtrictions herein after expreſſed; that is to ſay, Every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, before ſhe proceeds on ſuch Voyage, ſhall be viſited by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms belonging to ſuch Port, who ſhall examine into ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and take an Account of the Tonnage thereof by Admeaſurement, and ſhall certify ſuch his or their Viſitation, Examination, and Admeaſurement, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Revenue in Ireland; and if it appears by the Certificate of ſuch Officer or Officers that ſhe hath on Board ſuch a Number of Men, Proviſions, Boats, Fiſhing Lines, and Inſtruments to be uſed in ſuch Fiſhery as herein after are mentioned; that ſhe is ſtrongly built, and otherwiſe a proper Ship for ſuch Voyage and Fiſhery, and hath on Board among her Crew a ſufficient Number of Harpooners, Steerſmen, and Line-managers, who have been before employed in ſuch Voyages (the Names of ſuch Perſons to be contained in ſuch Certificate); and if it further appears by the Oath of one or more Owner or Owners, and of the Maſter or Chief Officer of ſuch Ship, written at the Foot of ſuch Certificate, and made before the Collector or Comptroller of ſuch Port (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſame), that it is really and truly their firm Purpoſe and determined Reſolution, that ſuch Ship ſhall, as ſoon as Licence ſhall be granted, forthwith proceed, ſo manned, furniſhed, and accoutred, on a Voyage to the Greenland Seas, or Davis's Streights, or the Seas adjacent, and there in the then approaching Seaſon to uſe the utmoſt Endeavours of themſelves and their Ship's Company to take Whales, or other Creatures living in the Sea, and on no other Deſign or View of Profit in ſuch Voyage, and to import the Whale Fins, Oil, and Blubber thereof, into the Kingdom of Great Britain (naming the Port to which it is their Intention to return); and if the Maſter, after ſuch Certificate had, and Oath made, do alſo become bound, with two ſufficient Securities, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Penalty of ſuch Sum as ſhall be equal to treble the Bounty intended by this Act (which Bond the ſaid Collector, with the Approbation of the Comptroller, is hereby required to take, and is to be in Force for the Term of three Years againſt the Maſter and Sureties for the faithful Dealings of the ſaid Maſter and Ship's Company in regard to the ſaid Ship and Voyage); then, and in all ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful for any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Revenues in Ireland for the Time being, on receiving ſuch Certificates and Oaths made, and it being certified to them by the Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port, that ſufficient Security hath been given as aforeſaid, to give and grant, and they are hereby required to give and grant to the Maſter and Owners of ſuch Ship, full Licence and Authority to proceed on ſuch Voyage as aforeſaid.

After Dec. 25, 1775, Bounties granted by Act 11 Geo. III. extended to Ireland.

Officers to certify that Ships are properly fitted out, before they proceed on their Voyage.

Commiſſioners of the Revenues in Ireland, on receiving ſuch Certificates, to grant Licence, &c.

'XXII. And to prevent any Diſputes that may ariſe whether a Ship be properly qualified and duly fitted 'out for the Whale Fiſhery, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and intitled to a Cer-'tificate thereof from the Cuſtom-houſe Officers,' it is hereby enacted, That every Ship of the Burthen of two hundred Tons, deſigned for this Fiſhery, ſhall and is hereby obliged to have on Board forty Fiſhing Lines of one hundred and twenty Fathom each, forty Harpoon Irons, four Boats with ſeven Men, including a Harpooner, a Steerſman, and a Line-manager, to each Boat, making in the Whole twenty-eight Men beſides the Maſter and Surgeon, with ſix Months Proviſion at the leaſt for ſuch Number of Men; and every Ship of larger Burthen an Increaſe of ſix Men, one Boat, ten ſuch Lines and ten Harpoon Irons more, for every fifty Tons above the ſaid two hundred Tons, together with Proviſions in proportion;

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to repeal two Acts, made in the Parliament of Scotland, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and the fifteenth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Juſticiary in the Highlands, ſo far as relates to the Mac Gregours; and to revive an Act of the ſaid Parliament of the twenty-ſixth Day of April, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, relative to the People called Mac Gregours.

Preamble.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1633, Car. I. recited.

'WHEREAS in the Parliament of Scotland, being the firſt Parliament of King Charles the Firſt, holden at Edinburgh, the twenty-eighth Day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three, an Act paſſed, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, ratifying and approving all Acts of Council and of Parliament made theretofore againſt the Clan of Mac Gregour, and ordaining the Clan or People of the Name of Gregour or Mac Gregour, and every one of them, at arriving at the Age of Sixteen, to give Security to the Privy Council of Scotland for their good Behaviour and Obedience; and that the ſaid Clan Gregour ſhould take to them ſome other Surname; and that upon their Failure to appear, it ſhould be lawful to any of his Majeſty's Lieges to take and apprehend them to be preſented to the Privy Council, there to be taken Order with; and if it ſhould happen any of the ſaid Clan Gregour to be hurt, mutilated, or ſlain, the Party ſo doing and their Accomplices ſhould no Ways be ſubject or liable to Law therefore, nor incur any Pain or Skaith in Body or Goods, and ſhould be free of all Purſuit, Criminal or Civil, and the ſame ſhould be holden as good Service done to his Majeſty; and that for the better extinguiſhing and extirpating the ſaid Clan, no Miniſter or Preacher within the Bounds therein mentioned ſhould at any Time thereafter baptize or chriſten any Male Child by the Name of Gregour, and that no Clerk or Notary at any Time coming ſhould make or ſubſcribe any Bond or other Security under the Name of Gregour: And whereas in the firſt Parliament of King Charles the Second, holden at Edinburgh, Anno one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, an Act paſſed, bearing Date the twenty-ſixth Day of April in that Year, whereby his Majeſty, conſidering that thoſe who were formerly deſigned by the Name of Mac Gregour had, during the Troubles, carried themſelves with ſuch Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty as might juſtly wipe off all Memory of their former Miſcarriages, and take off all Mark of Reproach put upon them for the ſame; and his Majeſty being deſirous to reclaim his Subjects from every evil Way, and to give all due Encouragement to ſuch as lived in due Obedience and Submiſſion to his Majeſty's Authority and Laws of the Kingdom, therefore his Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent of his Eſtates of Parliament, reſcinded, caſſed, and annulled the thirtieth Act of the Firſt Parliament of King Charles the Firſt, intituled, Act anent the Clan Gregour, and declared the ſame void and null in all Time coming, and that it ſhould be thereafter free to all Perſons come of the Name and Race of the Clan Gregour to keep and make uſe of the ſaid Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, and enjoy all Privileges and Immunities as other Subjects, notwithſtanding the ſaid Act, or any other Acts, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary: And whereas in the Reign of King William and Queen Mary an Act paſſed in the Parliament of Scotland, the fifteenth of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-three, intituled, Act for the Juſticiary in the Highlands, whereby their Majeſties, with the Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, revived the Act of Parliament of one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three againſt the Clan Gregour, notwithſtanding the ſame was reſcinded in the Year one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, which Act reſciſſary their Majeſties did, by this Act, annul and make void: And whereas thoſe Perſons who were the Objects of the aforeſaid Acts did generally give Obedience to the Law, by aſſuming other Names, and many of the Deſcendants of thoſe Perſons now bear the Names that were by them ſo aſſumed: And whereas the Cauſes inductive of the Acts for ſuppreſſing the Name of Gregour, or Mac Gregour, are now little known, and have long ago ceaſed, and thoſe Acts being incapable of Execution ever ſince the Powers of the Privy Council of Scotland were aboliſhed, many Perſons conſidering them to be ineffect, and for the moſt part obſolete, do now uſe the Name of Mac Gregour: And whereas many Perſons of the Surname of Mac Gregour have found divers Inconveniences ariſing to them from the ſaid Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, particularly by being diſabled, and apprehending themſelves diſabled thereby, from ſuing and defending in their own true Names in Courts of Law and Juſtice in North Britain, and are deſirous to re-aſſume the real Name of their Anceſtors and Families, but are unwilling ſo to do while there is the Appearance of a legal Prohibition ſtanding againſt them; and for as much as they cannot be fully relieved without the Authority of Parliament,' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty (upon the humble Petition of Gregor Drummond, Eſquire, for himſelf and and many others), that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1661, Car. II. recited.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1693, Gul. et Mariæ, recited.

The above-recited Acts of the Parliament of Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Act of the Parliament of Scotland, of the twenty-eighth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty-three, and the ſaid Act of the Parliament of Scotland, of the fifteenth Day of June one thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-three, ſo far as reſpects the Clan Gregour, or Mac Gregour, ſhall be and ſtand repealed, reſcinded, annulled, and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Scotland, 1633 and 1693, ſo far as they reſpect the Clan Gregour, are by this Act repealed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made the twenty-ſixth Day of April one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-one, be and the ſame is hereby revived, and declared to be in full Force and Vigour in Time coming.

The Act of the Parliament of Scotland, April 26, 1661, hereby revived, and in full Force.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for allowing the Officer appointed to mark or ſtamp the Weights to be made uſe of in weighing the Gold and Silver Coin of this Kingdom, in purſuance of an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to take certain Fees in the Execution of his Office.

Preamble.

Act 14 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for regulating and aſcertaining the Weights to be made uſe of in weighing the Gold and Silver Coin of this Kingdom, it is enacted, That exact Duplicates or Copies of the ſeveral Standard Weights therein mentioned ſhall be delivered to and lodged in the Cuſtody of an Officer, to be from Time to Time appointed for that Purpoſe, with a Salary not exceeding the yearly Sum of two hundred and fifty Pounds; and that, from and after the Day therein mentioned, all Weights to be made uſe of for weighing the ſaid Gold and Silver Coin ſhall be aſcertained by the ſaid Duplicates or Copies; and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be juſt and true, ſhall, in Teſtimony thereof, be marked by the ſaid Officer with a Stamp or Mark, which the ſaid Officer is thereby directed to provide; and is alſo required, upon Application made to him, at all ſeaſonable Hours, to ſtamp or mark, in Manner therein mentioned, all Weights to be uſed for weighing the ſaid Gold and Silver Coin which ſhould be brought to him for that Purpoſe, and which he ſhould find to be juſt and true, according to the ſaid Duplicates or Copies of the Standard Weights of a Guinea, and of a Shilling, and of the Parts and Multiples thereof reſpectively, by the ſaid Act directed to be lodged in his Cuſtody, without Fee or Reward, and without wilful Delay: And whereas the Officer appointed for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, hath hitherto duly executed the ſame, but is unable by himſelf to give that Diſpatch therein which the preſent Demands of the Publick require; and it would greatly tend to the ſpeedy carrying the Intention of the ſaid Act into Execution, if the ſaid Officer were permitted to take a ſmall Fee for the ſtamping or marking the ſaid Weights, towards reimburſing him the neceſſary Expence of procuring an extraordinary Number of Aſſiſtants adequate to the ſaid Demands, which, as the Law now ſtands, he is not allowed to do:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for John Whitehurſt, the preſent Officer, and every other Officer to be from Time to Time appointed for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, and he and they are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and impowered, to aſk, demand, and receive, of and from all and every Perſon and Perſons bringing Weights to the ſaid Office, to be ſtamped or marked in purſuance of the ſaid Act, any Sum of Money not exceeding one Penny for every twelve Weights ſo ſtamped or marked before he delivers the ſame; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

J. Whitehurſt impowered to take 1 d. for every twelve Weights ſtamped.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for the Encouragement of the Fiſheries carried on from Great Britain, Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in Europe, and for ſecuring the Return of the Fiſhermen, Sailors, and others employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, to the Ports thereof, at the End of the Fiſhing Seaſon.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Fiſheries carried on by his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain and of the Britiſh Dominions in Europe have been found to be the beſt Nurſeries for able and experienced Seamen, always ready to man the Royal Navy when Occaſions require; and it is therefore of the higheſt national Importance to give all due Encouragement to the ſaid Fiſheries, and to endeavour to ſecure the annual Return of the Fiſhermen, Sailors, and others employed therein, to the Ports of Great Britain, and of his Majeſty's Dominions before mentioned, at the End of every Fiſhing Seaſon:' Now, in order to promote theſe great and important Purpoſes, and with a View, in the firſt place, to induce his Majeſty's Subjects to proceed early from the Ports of Great Britain to the Banks of Newfoundland, and thereby to proſecute the Fiſhery on the ſaid Banks to the greateſt Advantage, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, the reſpective Bounties herein after mentioned ſhall be paid and allowed annually, for eleven Years, for a certain Number of Ships or Veſſels employed in the Britiſh Fiſhery on the Banks of Newfoundland, under the Limitations and Reſtrictions herein after expreſſed; that is to ſay, Such Veſſels ſhall appear by their Regiſter to be Britiſh built, and owned by his Majeſty's Subjects reſiding in Great Britain

After Jan. 1, 1776, Bounties to be given to Veſſels fitted out from Great Britain or Ireland for the Newfoundland Fiſhery, Act 25 Car. II. allowing Train Oil, &c to be imported Duty-free, recited,

'IX. And whereas by an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second '(intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eaſtland Trades, and for the better ſecuring 'the Plantation Trade), and by other Acts of Parliament, it is lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import 'into England Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland, and Parts adjacent, and thoſe Seas, or of Newfound- 'land, or of any other his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations, made of Fiſh, or of any other Creature 'living in the Seas, and Whale Fins caught in any Ships or Veſſels truly and properly belonging to Eng- 'land or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and imported in ſuch Ships, without paying any Cuſ- 'tom or Duty for the ſame, which Liberty, by a ſubſequent Act of Parliament, is extended to Ships be- 'longing to Great Britain; and it is reaſonable that the ſame Indulgence ſhould be extended to Oil and 'Blubber of Fiſh, and other Creatures living in the Sea, and to Whale Fins caught in any Part of the 'Ocean by Ships belonging to Great Britain, Ireland, and the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, and Man;'

and after Sept. 1, 1775, extended to all Ships belonging to Great Britain, Ireland, Guernſey, &c.

be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, the Liberty granted by the ſaid Act to import into this Kingdom Oil or Blubber of Fiſh, or other Creatures living in the Sea, or Whale Fins taken within the Limits therein mentioned, Duty-free, ſhall extend, and be conſtrued to extend, to ſuch Oil or Blubber, or Whale Fins, as ſhall be ſo taken in any Part of the Ocean by, and imported in any Ship or Veſſel truly and properly belonging to, his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Man, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

After Sept. 1, 1775, undreſſed Seal Skins may be imported Duty-free.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to import into this Kingdom any raw and undreſſed Seal Skins taken and caught by the Crews of Veſſels belonging to and fitted out either from Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Man reſpectively, and whereof the Captain or Maſter and Three-fourths at the leaſt of the Mariners are his Majeſty's Subjects, or by Perſons employed by the Maſters or Owners of ſuch Veſſels, without paying any Cuſtom, Subſidy, or other Duty, for the ſame, any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Not to extend to any Seal Skins except thoſe imported by Ships qualified as aforeſaid, and duly entered at the Cuſtomhouſe, &c.

XI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to give Liberty of importing any ſuch Seal Skins Duty-free, unleſs the Captain or Perſon having the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel importing the ſame ſhall make Oath before the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath), that all the Skins imported in ſuch Ship or Veſſel were really and bona fide the Skins of Seals taken and caught by the Crews thereof, or by Perſons employed by the Maſter or Owner of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or of ſome other Ship or Veſſel qualified as aforeſaid; and ſuch Seal Skins ſhall be alſo duly entered at the Cuſtomhouſe for the ſaid Port, and landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe; and on Failure of any of theſe Conditions, ſuch Skins ſhall be liable to pay the ſame Duties as they would have been ſubject and liable to if this Act had not been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'XII. And whereas it has been a Practice of late Years for divers Perſons to ſeduce the Fiſhermen, 'Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed in carrying on the Fiſhery, arriving at Newfoundland, on 'Board Fiſhing and other Veſſels from Great Britain, and the Britiſh Dominions in Europe, to go from 'thence to the Continent of America, to the great Detriment of the Fiſhery and the Naval Force of this 'Kingdom:' Now, in order to remedy the ſaid Evil, and to ſecure the Return of the ſaid Fiſhermen,

No Shipmaſter to carry any Fiſhermen, &c. as Paſſengers to any Part of the Continent of America without Permiſſion, under the Penalty of 200 l.

Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed as aforeſaid, to the Britiſh Dominions in Europe, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, it ſhall not be lawful for the Maſter, or Perſon having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Veſſel trading to or from any Place within the Government of Newfoundland, to carry or convey, as Paſſengers, any ſuch Fiſhermen, Sailors, Artificers, and others, employed as aforeſaid, from thence to any Part of the Continent of America, without the Permiſſion under the Hand and Seal of the Governor of the ſaid Iſland of Newfoundland, under the Penalty of forfeiting two hundred Pounds for every ſuch Offence.

'XIII. And whereas in ſeveral Acts, paſſed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of William the Third, 'the eighth of George the Firſt, and ſecond and twelfth of George the Second, Proviſion has been made to 'prevent Seamen and Mariners in the Merchant Service being wilfully left beyond Sea, and to ſecure 'and provide for their Return home to ſuch Part of his Majeſty's Dominions whereto they belong: And 'whereas, for want of ſuch Proviſions being extended to Seamen and Fiſhermen going out as Paſſengers 'to Newfoundland, and hired and employed in the Fiſheries carried on there, great Numbers of them 'remain in that Country at the End of every Fiſhing Seaſon, who would otherwiſe return home, and 'ſome of them have frequently turned Robbers and Pirates;' for Remedy of which Evil, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, employ, or cauſe to be employed, at Newfoundland, for the Purpoſe of carrying on the Fiſhery there, any Seaman or Fiſherman going as Paſſengers, or any Seaman or Fiſherman hired there, without firſt entering into an Agreement or Contract in Writing with every ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, declaring what Wages ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman is to have, and the Time for which he ſhall ſerve, which ſhall be ſigned by both Parties; wherein it ſhall be ſtipulated (amongſt other Things) that the Perſon ſo hiring or employing ſhall be at Liberty to reſerve, retain, and deduct, and he is hereby authoriſed, required, and directed, to reſerve, retain, and deduct, out of the Wages of every Perſon ſo hired or employed, a Sum of Money equal to the then current Price of a Man's Paſſage home, not exceeding forty Shillings for each Man, which Money ſuch Hirer or Employer ſhall, at at the End of each Fiſhing Seaſon, or at the Expiration of the covenanted Time of Service of ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the Maſter of a Paſſage or other Ship, who ſhall undertake or agree to carry ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman home to the Country whereto he belongs, and ſhall alſo convey ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman to and on Board ſuch Paſſage or other Ship, taking the Maſter's Receipt for the Paſſage Money, which Receipt he ſhall immediately thereupon deliver to ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman.

Regulations for Perſons employing Seamen or Fiſhermen at Newfoundland,

Employers to pay to Fiſhermen, &c only Half of their Wages, and the other Half in Bills, &c. at their Return home.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Hirer or Employer of any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman ſhall pay or advance, or cauſe to be paid or advanced, to ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, in Money, Liquor, and Goods, or either of them, during the Time he ſhall be in his Service, more than one Half of the Wages which ſhall at any Time be due to him; but ſuch Hirer or Employer ſhall, and is hereby required and directed, immediately at or upon the Expiration of every ſuch Man's covenanted Time of Service, to pay either in Money, or in good Bills of Exchange, payable either in Great Britain or Ireland, or in the Country to which ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman belongs, the full Balance of his Wages, except the Money herein before directed to be retained for his Paſſage home; and it ſhall not be lawful for any ſuch Hirer or Employer to turn away or diſcharge any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, except for wilful Neglect of Duty, or other ſufficient Cauſe, before the Expiration of his covenanted Time of Service; and in caſe the Hirer or Employer of any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman ſhall refuſe or neglect to comply with any of the Terms herein before mentioned, or ſhall otherwiſe offend againſt this Act, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, beſides the Balance that ſhall be due to ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, the Money herein before directed to be retained for his Paſſage home, the Sum of ten Pounds, to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame.

Penalty on Employers neglecting to comply.

If any Diſpute ariſe, Employers obliged to produce the Contract.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where Diſputes ſhall ariſe concerning the Wages of any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, the Hirer or Employer ſhall be obliged to produce the Contract or Agreement in Writing, herein before directed to be entered into with every ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman.

All Fiſh and Oil liable to the Payment of Wages.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Fiſh and Oil which ſhall be taken and made by the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall hire or employ ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, ſhall be ſubject and liable, in the firſt place, to the Payment of the Wages of every ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman.

Penalty on Seamen or Fiſhermen abſenting themſelves from their Employers without Leave.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman ſhall at any Time wilfully abſent himſelf from his Duty or Employ, without the Leave and Conſent of his Hirer or Employer, or ſhall wilfully neglect or refuſe to work according to the true Intent and Meaning of ſuch Contract or Agreement, he ſhall, for every Day he ſhall ſo abſent himſelf, or neglect or refuſe to work as aforeſaid, forfeit two Days Pay to ſuch Hirer or Employer; and if any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman ſhall wilfully abſent himſelf from his ſaid Duty or Employ for the Space of five Days, without ſuch Leave as aforeſaid, he ſhall be deemed a Deſerter, and ſhall forfeit to ſuch Hirer or Employer all ſuch Wages as ſhall at the Time of ſuch Deſertion be due to him (except ſo much as is herein before directed to be reſerved and retained for the Purpoſe of paying his Paſſage home); and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Governor of Newfoundland, or his Surrogates, or the Commiſſary of the Vice Admiralty Court for the Time being, or for any Juſtice of the Peace in Newfoundland, to iſſue his or their Warrant or Warrants to apprehend every ſuch Deſerter, and on the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes to commit him to Priſon, there to remain until the next Court of Seſſion which ſhall be holden in purſuance of the Commiſſion of the ſaid Governor for the Time being; and, if found guilty of the ſaid Offence at ſuch Seſſion, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Court of Seſſion to order ſuch Deſerter to be publickly whipped as a Vagrant, and afterwards to be put on Board a Paſſage Ship, in order to his being conveyed back to the Country whereto he belongs.

Diſputes, and all Offences, to be determined by the Court of Seſſion, &c. at Newfoundland.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Diſputes which ſhall ariſe concerning the Wages of every or any ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, and all Offences which ſhall be committed by every Hirer or Employer of ſuch Seaman or Fiſherman, againſt this Act, ſhall and may be inquired into, heard, and determined, and the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby incurred ſhall and may be recovered in the Court of Seſſion herein before mentioned, or in the Court of Vice Admiralty having Juriſdiction in the ſaid Iſland of Newfoundland.

Act 6 Annæ, reſpecting Sailors employed in Trading Ships, &c. in America not liable to be impreſſed, repealed.

'XIX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the ſixth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade to America, it is, amongſt other 'Things, enacted, That no Mariner or other Perſon who ſhall ſerve on Board, or be retained to ſerve 'on Board, any Privateer, or Trading Ship or Veſſel, that ſhall be employed in any Part of America, 'nor any Mariner or other Perſon being on Shore in any Part thereof, ſhall be liable to be impreſſed or 'taken away by any Officer or Officers of or belonging to any of her Majeſty's Ships of War, impowered 'by the Lord High Admiral, or any other Perſon whatſoever, unleſs ſuch Mariner ſhall have before de'ſerted from ſuch Ship of War: And whereas the ſaid Privilege or Exemption ſo given by the ſaid Act 'to Mariners ſerving on Board Ships or Veſſels employed in any of the Seas or Ports of the Continent of 'America, or reſiding on Shore there, is prejudicial to the Fiſheries carried on by his Majeſty's Subjects 'of Great Britain and Ireland, and others his Majeſty's Dominions in Europe, and has proved an Encou'ragement to Mariners belonging thereto to deſert in Time of War, or at the Appearance of a War, to 'the Britiſh Plantations on the ſaid Continent of America;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Clauſe, ſo far as it relates to the exempting of Mariners or other Perſons ſerving, or retained to ſerve, in any Ship or Veſſel in the Seas or Ports of the Continent of America, or other Perſons on Shore there, from being impreſſed, be and the ſame is hereby repealed.

'XX. And whereas the immoderate Uſe of Rum and other Spirits, imported into Newfoundland from 'his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America, has been found to be highly detrimental to the Fiſh-

Rum, &c. imported into Newfoundland from America, to pay a Duty of 1 s. per Gallon.

How ſuch Duty is to be collected, recovered, and applied.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for encouraging the Manufactures of Rape Oil, and other Vegetable Oils, in this Kingdom, by reducing the Duties on Rape Seed, and other Seeds producing Oil imported from Ireland; and for allowing the free Importation of Rape Cakes for Manure from Ireland to this Kingdom.

Preamble. Act 12 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty a Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable on Merchandiſe exported and imported, heavy Duties have been impoſed upon Rape Seed, and upon Oil extracted from Rape Seed, and other Vegetable Oils imported from Ireland, which Duties, by an Act paſſed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, have been made perpetual; and the ſaid Duties have been found by Experience to amount to a Prohibition of the Importation of the ſaid Commodities from his Majeſty's ſaid Kingdom of Ireland: And whereas this Kingdom, not being able to ſupply its own Conſumption, is obliged to purchaſe large Quantities of Oils of different Sorts from Foreigners, in the place of many of which Sorts now imported on low Duties, Oils made in this Kingdom of Rape Seed imported from Ireland might be advantageouſly ſubſtituted, and particularly for the Uſe of the Woollen Manufacture: And whereas there is Reaſon to apprehend that there may be a Deficiency in the Quantity of Whale Oil and other Fiſh Oil, ſo neceſſary for a Variety of Manufactures, which Deficiency may be beſt provided againſt by a Supply of Vegetable Oil to be manufactured in this Kingdom;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, whenever the Price of middling Britiſh Rape Seed, at the Ports and Places where Rape Seed ſhall be imported into this Kingdom, ſhall appear, according to the Methods directed by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for aſcertaining the Rates and Prices of Corn and Grain imported, to be at or above the Price of ſeventeen Pounds and ten Shillings per Laſt, all Duties heretofore impoſed upon or payable on Account of any Rape Seed, or other Seed, commonly made uſe of for the Purpoſe of extracting Oil from the ſame, imported from Ireland, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid; and in lieu thereof, there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Duty of one Shilling per Laſt, and no more, upon all Rape Seed, and upon all other Seeds commonly made uſe of for the Purpoſe of extracting Oil therefrom, ſuch Seeds being of the Growth of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain.

by Act 11 Geo. I. made perpetual.

After Aug. 1. 1775, when Rape Seed ſhall be above 17l. 10s. per Laſt, all former Duties on ſuch Seed imported from Ireland ſhall ceaſe; and in lieu thereof 1s. per Laſt ſhall be paid, and no more.

How Duties are to be collected, and applied.

II. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Duties ſhall be levied, collected, paid, and applied, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and for ſuch and the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſaid Act of of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second are directed to be levied, collected, paid, and applied.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt next, it ſhall and may be lawful to import, into any Part of Great Britain, from Ireland, all Rape Cakes, or Cakes made of Rape Seed, commonly uſed for the Purpoſe of Manure, Duty-free.

Rape Cakes for Manure may be imported from Ireland Duty-free.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to permit the free Importation of raw Goat Skins into this Kingdom for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it would tend greatly to encourage and improve the Manufacture of red, green, and 'blue Leather in this Kingdom, if the Importation of raw and undreſſed Goat Skins Duty-free was 'permitted for a limited Time;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twentieth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to import and bring into this Kingdom, in Britiſh-built Ships or Veſſels, navigated according to Law, from any Port or Place whatſoever, any Goat Skins raw or undreſſed, without paying any Subſidy, Cuſtom, or other Duty whatſoever for the ſame, for the Space of five Years from the ſaid twentieth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

After June 20, 1775, raw Goats Skins may be imported from any Place into this Kingdom Duty-free for 5 Years.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That due Entry ſhall be made of all ſuch Goat Skins at the Cuſtom-houſe belonging to the Port into which the ſame ſhall be imported, in ſuch Manner and Form as was uſed and practiſed before the making of this Act; and ſuch Goat Skins ſhall be landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe; and if any Perſon or Perſons, upon the Importation of ſuch Goat Skins, ſhall not obſerve and perform the ſaid Rules and Regulations herein-before mentioned, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be liable to pay ſuch and the ſame Duties as ſuch Goat Skins would have been ſubject and liable to if this Act had not been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Due Entry of all ſuch Goat Skins to be made at the Cuſtom-houſe; and on Default, to be liable to former Duties.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to enable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out New Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Receſs of Parliament; and for enabling the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to make out New Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall during the Receſs of Parliament become Peers of Great Britain, and be ſummoned to Parliament; and for ſuſpending the Execution of the ſaid Act with reſpect to the Borough of Shafteſbury, in the County of Dorſet, during the next Receſs of Parliament.

Preamble. Act 10 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the tenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act 'to enable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out New Writs for the 'Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Receſs of Par-'liament, the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons is required to iſſue his Warrants to the Clerk of the 'Crown to make out new Writs in the Room of Members who die during a Receſs of Parliament for more 'than twenty Days, whether by Prorogation or Adjournment, the Deaths of ſuch Members having been 'certified in Writing to him under the Hands of two Members of the Houſe of Commons, and fourteen 'Days Notice being firſt given by the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons thereof, and of his Intentions 'to iſſue ſuch Warrants, by inſerting ſuch Notice in the London Gazette: And whereas Inconveniencies 'might ariſe if ſuch Notice ſhould be inſerted in the London Gazette, and ſuch Warrant ſhould be iſſued 'by the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, in the Caſe of the Death of a Member, which ſhall not be 'certified to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons ſo long before the actual Meeting of the Houſe of 'Commons for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs as that the ſaid Notice may be inſerted, and the fourteen Days ex-'pire, before the ſaid Meeting of the Houſe of Commons; or in the Caſe of the Death of a Member againſt 'whoſe Election or Return a Petition had been preſented to the Houſe of Commons, and was depending 'at the Time of ſuch Prorogation or Adjournment:' For preventing the ſame, be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That nothing in the ſaid Act contained extends, or ſhall be conſtrued to extend, to require the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to inſert Notice in the London Gazette, or iſſue his Warrant to make out a new Writ in the Room of any Member deceaſed, whoſe Death ſhall not be duly certified to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons ſo long before the actual Meeting of the Houſe of Commons for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs as that the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons may be able to inſert Notice thereof, and of his Intention to iſſue ſuch Warrant, fourteen Days at the leaſt before ſuch Meeting of the Explanation of ſaid Act with reſpect to the iſſuing of Writs for Members to ſerve in Parliament.

Houſe of Commons; or for the Election of a Member to ſerve in Parliament for any County, Shire, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, in the Room of any Member deceaſed, againſt whoſe Election or Return for ſuch County, Shire, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, a Petition had been preſented to the Houſe of Commons, and was actually depending at the Time of ſuch Prorogation or Adjournment.

'II. And whereas it would tend ſtill further to promote the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act of the tenth Year 'of his preſent Majeſty, and to prevent thoſe Inconveniences and Diſorders which may be occaſioned for 'want of more ſpeedy Elections of Members of the Houſe of Commons, if the Proviſions of the ſaid Act 'were extended to the Caſes of Members who ſhall become Peers of Great Britain,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons for the Time being, during the Receſs of Parliament for more than twenty Days, whether by Prorogation or Adjournment, and he is hereby required to iſſue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out new Writs for electing Members of the Houſe of Commons in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall, during ſuch Receſs, become Peers of Great Britain, as ſoon as he ſhall receive Notice, by a Certificate under the Hands of two Members of the Houſe of Commons, that a Writ of Summons hath been iſſued under the Great Seal of Great Britain to ſummon the ſaid Members to Parliament.

Speaker to iſſue his Warrants, during a Receſs, for electing Members in the Room of thoſe become Peers of Great Britain.

III. Provided alſo, That after the Receipt of ſuch Certificate, the like Notice in the London Gazette ſhall be given by the Speaker, as is required in the Caſe of Members deceaſed; and ſuch Notice and Warrant ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Exceptions and Regulations as are required by the ſaid Act and by this preſent Act, in the Caſe of Notices to be given, and Warrants to be iſſued in the Room of Members dying during a Receſs.

The like Notice to be given as of Members deceaſed.

'IV. And whereas it has appeared to the Houſe of Commons, that there was the moſt notorious Bribery 'and Corruption at the laſt Election of Members to ſerve in this preſent Parliament for the Borough of 'Shafton otherwiſe Shafteſbury, in the County of Dorſet: And whereas, in conſequence thereof, and until 'the Houſe of Commons ſhall have an Opportunity of making a further Inquiry into the Perſons con-'cerned in the ſaid Bribery and Corruption, the Houſe of Commons have provided, that no Writ do iſſue 'for the electing of a Burgeſs to ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough during the preſent Seſſion of 'Parliament; but as it may happen that, during the next Receſs of Parliament, the Speaker of the Houſe 'of Commons may, by virtue of the ſaid recited Act of the tenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, be required 'to iſſue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Burgeſs to 'ſerve in Parliament for the ſaid Borough of Shafteſbury: And whereas the iſſuing ſuch Writ during the 'next Receſs of Parliament might tend to defeat thoſe Meaſures which it may be proper to take in con-'ſequence of the ſaid notorious Bribery and Corruption;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons ſhall not be enabled, by virtue of the ſaid recited Act, to iſſue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the ſaid Borough of Shafton otherwiſe Shafteſbury, in the County of Dorſet, during the ſaid next Receſs of Parliament.

Speaker not to iſſue any Warrant, &c. for the Borough of Shafton.

and inſtead thereof, all Earthen Ware, &c. to pay 10*l.* 10*s.* for every 100*l.* ad valorem; to be aſcertained on Oath of the Importer, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Earthen Ware ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, and Forfeitures, that other unrated Goods, undervalued by the Importer or Proprietor, are ſubject and liable to by Law; and the ſeveral Subſidies, Impoſitions, and Duties, made payable by this Act upon ſuch Earthen Ware, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, recovered, paid and applied, in ſuch Manner and Form, and by ſuch Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Diſcounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, as the ſaid former Subſidies and other Duties were raiſed, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, and were ſubject and liable to; and all the Powers, Penalties, Proviſions, Articles, and Clauſes, contained in the ſeveral Acts of Parliament which granted or continued the ſame reſpectively, ſhall continue in full Force and Effect, and ſhall be applied, practiſed, and executed, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, recovering, paying, and applying the ſaid reſpective Subſidies, Impoſitions, and other Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this preſent Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Clauſes, Powers, and Proviſions, had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

CAP. LII.

An Act for enlarging the Term of Letters Patent, granted by his preſent Majeſty to William Cookworthy of Plymouth, Chymiſt, for the ſole Uſe and Exerciſe of a Diſcovery of certain Materials for making Porcelain, in order to enable Richard Champion of Briſtol, Merchant, (to whom the ſaid Letters Patent have been aſſigned) to carry the ſaid Diſcovery into effectual Execution for the Benefit of the Publick.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS his preſent Majeſty King George the Third hath been graciouſly pleaſed to grant his Royal Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to William Cookworthy Chymiſt, in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to ſay,

His Majeſty's Royal Letters Patent to William Cookworthy, Chymiſt, recited.

"GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth: To all to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, greeting: Whereas William Cookworthy, of Plymouth, in Our County of Devon, Chymiſt, has, by his Petition, humbly repreſented unto Us, that he hath, by a Series of Experiments, diſcovered, that Materials, of the ſame Nature with thoſe of which the Aſiatick Porcelain is made, are to be found in immenſe Quantities in Our Iſland of Great Britain, which Ingredients are diſtinguiſhed in Our two Counties of Devon and Cornwall by the Name of Moorſtone and Growan and Growan Clay; that the Ware which he hath prepared from theſe Materials hath all the Characters of the true Porcelain, in regard to Grain, Tranſparency, Colour, and Infuſibility, in a Degree equal to the beſt Chineſe or Dreſden Ware, whereas all the Manufactures of Porcelain hitherto carried on in Great Britain have been only Imitations of the genuine Kind, wanting the Beauty of Colour, the Smoothneſs and Luſtre of Grain, and the great Characteriſtick of genuine Porcelain, ſuſtaining the moſt extreme Degree of Fire without melting: That this Diſcovery hath been attended with great Labour and Expence, and, to the beſt of his Knowledge and Belief, in regard to this Kingdom, is new, and his own, the Materials being, even at this Time, applied to none of the Uſes of Pottery, but by him, and thoſe under his Direction; and that he verily believes this Invention will be of great Advantage to the Publick: He, therefore, moſt humbly prayed Us, that We would be pleaſed to grant him Our Royal Letters Patent for the ſole making and vending this new-invented Porcelain, compoſed of Moorſtone or Growan and Growan Clay, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Space of fourteen Years, according to the Statute in that Caſe made and provided: We, being willing to give Encouragement to all Arts and Inventions which may be for the Publick Good, are graciouſly pleaſed to condeſcend to the Petitioner's Requeſt: Know ye therefore, that We, of Our eſpecial Grace, certain Knowledge, and meer Motion, have given and granted, and by theſe Preſents, for Us, Our Heirs and Succeſſors, do give and grant unto the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, Our ſpecial Licence, full Power, ſole Privilege and Authority, that he, the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them, by himſelf and themſelves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or ſuch others as he the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, during the Term of Years herein expreſſed, ſhall and lawfully may make, uſe, exerciſe, and vend, his ſaid Invention, within that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in ſuch Manner as to him, the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, or any of them, ſhall, in their Diſcretions, ſeem meet; and that the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time, coming, growing, accruing, and ariſing, by reaſon of the ſaid Invention, for and during the Term of Years herein mentioned; to have, hold, exerciſe, and enjoy, the ſaid Licence, Powers, Privileges, and Advantages, herein before granted, or mentioned to be granted, unto the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for and during and unto the full End and Term of fourteen Years from the Date of theſe Preſents next and immediately enſuing, and fully to be complete and ended, according to the Statute in ſuch Caſe made and provided: And to the End that he the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them, may have and enjoy the full Benefit and the ſole Uſe and Exerciſe of the ſaid Invention, according to Our gracious Intention herein before declared, We do, by theſe Preſents, for Us, Our Heirs and Succeſſors, require and ſtrictly command all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, and all other Our Subjects whatſoever, of what Eſtate, Quality, Degree, Name, or Condition ſoever they be, within that ſaid Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed aforeſaid, that neither they, nor any of them, at any Time during the Continuance of the ſaid Term of fourteen Years hereby granted, either directly or indirectly, do make Uſe or put in Practice the ſaid Invention, or any Part of the ſame, ſo attained unto by the ſaid William Cookworthy as aforeſaid, nor in any-wiſe counterfeit, imitate, or reſemble the ſame; nor ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any Addition thereto, or Subſtraction from the ſame, whereby to pretend himſelf or themſelves the Inventor or Inventors, Deviſor or Deviſors thereof, without the Licence, Conſent, or Agreement of the ſaid William Cookworthy, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, in Writing, under his or their Hands and Seals, firſt had and obtained in that Behalf; upon ſuch Pains and Penalties as can or may be juſtly inflicted on ſuch Offenders for their Contempt of this Our Royal Command; and further to be anſwerable to the

CAP. LXI.

An Act for veſting in James Watt, Engineer, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, the ſole Uſe and Property of certain Steam Engines, commonly called Fire Engines, of his Invention, deſcribed in the ſaid Act, throughout his Majeſty's Dominions, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS his moſt Excellent Majeſty, King George the Third, by his Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the fifth Day of January, in the ninth Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto James Watt, of the City of Glaſgow, Merchant, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, the ſole Benefit and Advantage of making and vending certain Engines, by him invented, for leſſening the Conſumption of Steam and Fuel in Fire Engines within that Part of his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and alſo in his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, for the Term of fourteen Years; with a Proviſo, obliging the ſaid James Watt, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe a particular Deſcription of the Nature of the ſaid Invention to be inrolled in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, within four Months after the Date of the ſaid recited Letters Patent: And whereas the ſaid James Watt did, in purſuance of the ſaid Proviſo, cauſe a particular Deſcription of the ſaid Engine to be inrolled in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, upon the twenty-ninth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, which Deſcription is in the Words and Form, or to the Effect following; that is to ſay, "My Method of leſſening the Conſumption of Steam, and conſequently Fuel, in Fire Engines, conſiſts of the following Principles: Firſt, That Veſſel in which the Powers of Steam are to be employed to work the Engine which is called The Cylinder in common Fire Engines, and which I call The Steam Veſſel, muſt, during the whole Time the Engine is at Work, be kept as hot as the Steam that enters it; firſt, by incloſing it in a Caſe of Wood, or any other Materials that tranſmit Heat ſlowly; ſecondly, by ſurrounding it with Steam, or other heated Bodies; and, thirdly, by ſuffering neither Water, or any other Subſtance colder than the Steam, to enter or touch it during that Time. Secondly, In Engines that are to be worked wholly or partially by Condenſation of Steam, the Steam is to be condenſed in Veſſels diſtinct from the Steam Veſſels or Cylinders, although occaſionally communicating with them; theſe Veſſels I call Condenſers; and, whilſt the Engines are working, theſe Condenſers ought at leaſt to be kept as cold as the Air in the Neighbourhood of the Engines, by Application of Water, or other cold Bodies. Thirdly, Whatever Air or other elaſtick Vapour is not condenſed by the Cold of the Condenſer, and may impede the Working of the Engine, is to be drawn out of the Steam Veſſels or Condenſers by means of Pumps, wrought by the Engines themſelves, or otherwiſe. Fourthly, I intend in many Caſes to employ the expanſive Force of Steam to preſs on the Piſtons, or whatever may be uſed inſtead of them, in the ſame Manner as the Preſſure of the Atmoſphere is now employed in common Fire Engines: In Caſes where cold Water cannot be had in Plenty, the Engines may be wrought by this Force of Steam only, by diſcharging the Steam into the open Air after it has done its Office;" [which Fourth Article the ſaid James Watt declares, in a Note affixed

His Majeſty's Letters Patent granted to James Watt recited.

Specification of the Fire Engine.

affixed to the Specification of the ſaid Engine, ſhould not be underſtood to extend to any Engine where the Water to be raiſed enters the Steam Veſſel itſelf, or any Veſſel having an open Communication with it.] " Fifthly, Where Motions round an Axis are required, I make the Steam Veſſels in Form of hollow " Rings, or circular Channels, with proper Inlets and Outlets for the Steam, mounted on horizontal Axles, " like the Wheels of a Water Mill; within them are placed a Number of Valves, that ſuffer any Body " to go round the Channel in one Direction only; in theſe Steam Veſſels are placed Weights, ſo fitted to " them, as entirely to fill up a Part or Portion of their Channels, yet rendered capable of moving freely " in them, by the Means herein after mentioned or ſpecified: When the Steam is admitted in theſe En- " gines, between theſe Weights and the Valves, it acts equally on both, ſo as to raiſe the Weight to one " Side of the Wheel, and by the Re-action on the Valves, ſucceſſively, to give a circular Motion to the " Wheel, the Valves opening in the Direction in which the Weights are preſſed, but not in the con- " trary; as the Steam Veſſel moves round, it is ſupplied with Steam from the Boiler, and that which has " performed its Office may either be diſcharged by means of Condenſers, or into the open Air. Sixthly, " I intend, in ſome Caſes, to apply a Degree of Cold, not capable of reducing the Steam to Water, but " of contracting it conſiderably, ſo that the Engines ſhall be worked by the alternate Expanſion and Con- " traction of the Steam. Laſtly, Inſtead of uſing Water to render the Piſton or other Parts of the En- " gines Air and Steam tight, I employ Oils, Wax, reſinous Bodies, Fat of Animals, Quickſilver, and " other Metals, in their fluid State." And whereas the ſaid James Watt hath employed many Years, and ' a conſiderable Part of his Fortune, in making Experiments upon Steam, and Steam Engines, com- ' monly called Fire Engines, with a View to improve thoſe very uſeful Machines, by which ſeveral very ' conſiderable Advantages over the common Steam Engines are acquired; but upon account of the many ' Difficulties which always ariſe in the Execution of ſuch large and complex Machines, and of the long ' Time requiſite to make the neceſſary Trials, he could not complete his Intention before the End of the ' Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, when he finiſhed ſome large Engines as Specimens ' of his Conſtruction, which have ſucceeded ſo as to demonſtrate the Utility of the ſaid Invention: And ' whereas, in order to manufacture theſe Engines with the neceſſary Accuracy, and ſo that they may be ' ſold at moderate Prices, a conſiderable Sum of Money muſt be previouſly expended in erecting Mills, ' and other Apparatus; and as ſeveral Years, and repeated Proofs, will be required before any conſiderable ' Part of the Publick can be fully convinced of the Utility of the Invention, and of their Intereſt to adopt ' the ſame, the whole Term granted by the ſaid Letters Patent may probably elapſe before the ſaid James ' Watt can receive an Advantage adequate to his Labour and Invention: And whereas, by furniſhing ' mechanical Powers at much leſs Expence, and in more convenient Forms, than has hitherto been done, ' his Engines may be of great Utility in facilitating the Operations in many great Works and Manufac- ' tures of this Kingdom; yet it will not be in the Power of the ſaid James Watt to carry his Invention ' into that complete Execution which he wiſhes, and ſo as to render the ſame of the higheſt Utility to the ' Publick of which it is capable, unleſs the Term granted by the ſaid Letters Patent be prolonged, and his ' Property in the ſaid Invention ſecured, not only within that Part of Great Britain called England, the ' Dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations ' abroad, but alſo within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for ſuch Time as may enable him to ' obtain an adequate Recompence for his Labour, Time, and Expence: To the End, therefore, that the ' ſaid James Watt may be enabled and encouraged to proſecute and complete his ſaid Invention, ſo that ' the Publick may reap all the Advantages to be derived therefrom in their fulleſt Extent,' may it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty (at the humble Petition and Requeſt of the ſaid James Watt) that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſole Privilege and Advantage of making, conſtructing, and ſelling the ſaid Engines, herein before particularly deſcribed, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, veſted in the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for and during the Term of twenty-five Years; and that he the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them, by himſelf and themſelves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or ſuch others as he the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall at any Time agree with, and for no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times, during the Term of Years herein before mentioned, ſhall and lawfully may make, uſe, exerciſe, and vend the ſaid Engines, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and in his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, in ſuch Manner as to him the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall in their Diſcretions ſeem meet; and that the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time coming, growing, accruing, and ariſing, by reaſon of theſe his ſaid Inventions, for the ſaid Term of twenty-five Years, to have, hold, receive and enjoy the ſame, for and during and to the full End and Term of twenty-five Years, as aforeſaid; and that no other Perſon or Perſons within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or any of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations abroad, ſhall, at any Time during the ſaid Term of twenty-five Years, either directly or indirectly, do, make, uſe, or put in Practice, the ſaid Inventions, or any Part of the ſame, ſo attained unto by the ſaid James Watt as aforeſaid, nor in any wiſe counterfeit, imitate, or reſemble the ſame; nor ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any Addition thereunto, or Subſtraction from the ſame, whereby to pretend himſelf or themſelves the Inventor or Inventors, Deviſor or Deviſors thereof, without the Licence, Conſent, or Agreement of the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, firſt had and obtained in that Behalf, upon ſuch Pains and Penalties as can or may be juſtly inflicted on ſuch Offenders for their Contempt of this Act; and further, to be anſwerable to the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, according to Law, for his and their Damages thereby occaſioned.

This Act not to extend to hinder any Perſon from making or uſing any Fire Engine, &c. which is not the preſent Invention of the ſaid James Watt.

II. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prejudice or hinder any Perſon or Perſons from making or uſing any Fire or Steam Engine, or any particular Contrivance relating to the ſame, which is not at preſent of the Invention of the ſaid James Watt, or which has been publickly uſed or exerciſed by any other Perſon or Perſons before the Time of the Date of the ſaid Letters Patent herein recited; but that all ſuch Engines and Contrivances which are not at preſent of the ſaid Invention of the ſaid James Watt, or are not particularly ſpecified in this Act, ſhall be and remain to the Publick, and to the reſpective Inventors thereof, as if this Act had never been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo.

III. Provided alſo, That every Objection in Law competent againſt the ſaid Patent, ſhall be competent againſt this Act to all Intents and Purpoſes, except ſo far as relates to the Term hereby granted.

The Privileges granted by this Act not to be transferred to more than 5 Perſons;

IV. Provided always, That if the ſaid James Watt, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, or any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall at any Time, during the ſaid Term of twenty-five Years, have or claim any Right, Title, or Intereſt, in Law or Equity, of, in, or to the Power, Privilege, or Authority, of the ſole Uſe and Benefit of the ſaid Invention, ſhall make any Transfer or Aſſignment, or pretended Transfer or Aſſignment, of the ſaid Liberty or Privilege hereby granted, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profits thereof; or ſhall declare any Truſt thereof to or for any Number of Perſons exceeding the Number of five; or ſhall open, or cauſe to be opened, any Book or Books for publick Subſcriptions, to be made by any Number of Perſons exceeding the Number of five, in order to the raiſing any Sum or Sums of Money, under Pretence of carrying on the ſaid Liberty or Privilege hereby granted; or ſhall by him or themſelves, or his or their Agents or Servants, receive any Sum or Sums of Money whatſoever, of any Number of Perſons exceeding in the Whole the Number of five, for ſuch or the like Intents or Purpoſes; or ſhall preſume to act as a Corporate Body; or ſhall divide the Benefit of the Liberty or Privileges hereby granted, into any Number of Shares exceeding the Number of five; or ſhall commit or do, or procure to be committed or done, any Act, Matter, or Thing whatſoever, during ſuch Time as ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have any Right or Title, either in Law or Equity, which ſhall be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act of Parliament, made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majeſty, by two Charters, for Aſſurance of Ships and Merchandiſes at Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry, and for reſtraining ſeveral extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned; or in caſe the ſaid Power, Privilege, or Authority, ſhall at any Time become veſted in or in Truſt for more than the Number of five Perſons, or their Repreſentatives, at any one Time, otherwiſe than by Deviſe or Succeſſion (reckoning Executors and Adminiſtrators as and for the ſingle Perſons whom they repreſent, as to ſuch Intereſt as they are or ſhall be intitled to in Right of ſuch their Teſtator or Inteſtate); that then, and in every of the ſaid Caſes, all Liberties and Advantages whatſoever hereby granted ſhall utterly ceaſe, determine, and become void, any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

on Penalty of forfeiting the ſame.

Publick Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. LXII.

An Act for completing and maintaining the Pier at the Town of Mevagiſſey, in the County of Cornwall.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Town of Mevagiſſey, in the County of Cornwall, is ſituated on the South Side of 'the ſaid County, contiguous to the Britiſh Channel, and hath been for a long Series of Years 'found a very convenient Situation for carrying on the Pilchard Fiſhery; and the ſame has been done to 'the great Advantage, not only of the Publick in general, but of many Perſons concerned or employed 'therein; and for the Safety and Protection of Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, and others who 'might have Occaſion to navigate to and from the ſaid Town, a ſmall Pier was formerly erected and kept 'in Repair by the Owner of the Ground and Soil near to the ſame; and certain ſmall Dues were taken 'from the Owners of all ſuch Veſſels as partook of the Protection thereof: And whereas the ſaid Pier 'having been found very incommodious, difficult of Acceſs, and inadequate to the Increaſe of the ſaid 'Fiſhery, and the Reſort of Veſſels to the ſaid Town, the ſame hath been ſuffered to fall into Ruin and 'Decay; and it hath been judged neceſſary to erect a new Pier upon a more extended and enlarged Plan; 'for which Purpoſe the Sum of one thouſand three hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, hath been ſubſcribed 'and paid; which hath been expended in executing Part of the Work intended to be carried into Execu'tion; and in order to make and erect the proper Embankments, Quays, Wharfs, Ways, Paſſages, and 'Approaches to the ſaid Pier, and for the Protection thereof, it is neceſſary to veſt in Commiſſioners the 'Soil of a ſufficient Quantity of Ground; and for that End, and for completing the ſeveral Works afore'ſaid, and in making Satisfaction to the Owners of the Ground and Soil which will be uſed in effecting 'the ſame, it hath been found, that the further Sum of three thouſand Pounds, or thereabouts, will be 'neceſſary; and that, by laying a reaſonable Tonnage or Duty on all Ships and other Veſſels which ſhall 'partake of the Benefits reſulting from the ſaid Improvements, not only the ſaid further Sum, but the 'Intereſt thereof, and of the Sums already advanced, may be kept down, and the ſaid Pier and Works at 'all Times kept and maintained in good and ſufficient Repair; yet, nevertheleſs, the good Ends and 'Purpoſes

'Purpoſes aforeſaid cannot be effectually carried into Execution without the Aid and Authority of Par-'liament;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Perſons who for the Time being ſhall be ſeiſed of any Freehold or Inheritance of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments (except thoſe poſſeſſed of a Freehold under a Leaſe granted for a Life or Lives abſolute, with a reſerved yearly Rent payable out of the ſame), within the Town and Pariſh of Mevagiſſey, of the clear yearly Value of ten Pounds above Reprizes; that all ſuch Perſon and Perſons as ſhall or may for the Time being be ſeiſed reſpectively of the Freehold or Inheritance of the ſeveral Houſes of Carhais in the Pariſh of Saint Michael Carhais, of Trewarthenick in the Pariſh of Cornelly, of Penrice in the Pariſh of Saint Auſtell, of Heligan in the Pariſh of Saint Ewe, the Vicar of Mevagiſſey for the Time being, the Right Honourable Robert Lord Viſcount Clare in the Kingdom of Ireland, John Quicke of Nanſwhydden in the County of Cornwall Eſquire, and John Symmons of Slebeck in the County of Pembroke Eſquire, Samuel Ball, Stephen Rice, Thomas Jago, Roger Paſcoe, Oliver Paſcoe, John Pearce, Richard Nicholls, Philip Ball, John Rawe, and John Mills the elder, and their Succeſſors, to be elected in Manner herein after mentioned, ſhall be, and they are hereby conſtituted and appointed Truſtees, for carrying on, completing, maintaining, and preſerving, the ſaid Pier, and for executing ſuch other Works as to them, or any five or more of them, at their General Meeting aſſembled, ſhall ſeem moſt proper and convenient, and for putting in Execution all other the Powers in and by this Act given and granted, according to the Method herein after preſcribed; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, to order and direct all Matters and Things, and to cauſe the ſame to be done, from Time to Time, which ſhall be neceſſary for the carrying on, completing, maintaining, and preſerving, the ſaid Pier, and the other Works directed to be done, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Truſtees appointed:

Their Powers.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and as often as any Truſtee, Inhabitant of the ſaid Town of Mevagiſſey, ſhall die, or ceaſe to be an Inhabitant of the ſaid Town of Mevagiſſey, the ſurviving or remaining Truſtees, or any five or more of them, ſhall and may, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, nominate and appoint one or more Perſon or Perſons, being an Inhabitant or Inhabitants of the ſaid Town of Mevagiſſey, being poſſeſſed of or intitled to a Real or Perſonal Eſtate of the Value of five hundred Pounds, to be a Truſtee or Truſtees, in the Room of ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees ſo dying, or ceaſing to be an Inhabitant or Inhabitants of the ſaid Town; and ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, ſo nominated and appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall have the ſame Power and Authority for putting this Act in Execution as the Truſtee or Truſtees in whoſe Place or Places he or they were ſo choſen were inveſted with.

In caſe of Death, &c. other Truſtees to be elected.

III. And be it further enacted, That the firſt Meeting of the ſaid Truſtees ſhall be on the fourteenth Day after the paſſing of this Act, at the Houſe of Joſeph Wilſon, within the ſaid Town of Mevagiſſey; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, to meet and aſſemble from Time to Time as they ſee proper, at ſuch Place or Places as they ſhall judge moſt convenient, within the ſaid Town of Mevagiſſey, for carrying on and effecting the Purpoſes of this Act.

Time and Place of the firſt Meeting of the Truſtees, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, and their Agents and Officers, from Time to Time, by their Orders and Directions, to take away or remove any Obſtructions that may be neceſſary to be taken away or removed for the improving, completing, and maintaining, the ſaid Pier and other Works as aforeſaid, or for the better attaining the Purpoſes of this Act, making Satisfaction to the reſpective Owner or Owners of the Premiſes in ſuch Manner as is herein after mentioned.

Truſtees may remove Obſtructions, making Satisfaction to Owners.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees appointed by this Act, or any five or more of them, to contract and agree with any Workmen, Artificers, or other Perſons whomſoever, bona fide, for the making and doing all and every or any Part of the Work or Buſineſs to be done in or about the completing the ſaid Pier, and alſo with any Perſon or Perſons for Timber, Stones, or other Materials which ſhall be neceſſary to be uſed in or about the completing the ſaid Pier and other Works aforeſaid.

Truſtees may contract for making the Works.

'VI. And whereas, in order for the better carrying into Execution the Purpoſes of this Act, it will be 'neceſſary to extinguiſh the ſaid ancient Dues, and to veſt in the Truſtees appointed by this Act not only 'the Ground and Soil upon which the ſaid Pier ſhall ſtand, but alſo five hundred and ſixty Feet of Ground 'in Length, for the Purpoſe of erecting a Wharf and Approach to the ſaid Pier, to be aſcertained by a 'direct Line from the Stairs of a certain Place called The Old Quay, to the Wharf of a certain Cellar next 'the Sea, now in the Occupation of Robert Glanvill, and to be continued in a ſtraight Line from the ſaid 'Cellar Wall to a certain other Cellar Wall next a Place called The Strand, now in the Occupation of 'Charles Pearce, and in Breadth twenty Feet, to be aſcertained by Admeaſurement from the Line con-'necting the Cellar Walls of the ſaid Robert Glanvill and Charles Pearce outward towards the Beach, and 'from the Cellar Wall of the ſaid Robert Glanvill to the Old Quay Stairs; and likewiſe twenty Feet in 'Breadth, from the Eaſtern End of the ſaid intended Wharf, to be continued from thence, as an Ap-'proach to the Platform of the ſaid Pier: And whereas, as a full Satisfaction and Compenſation for the 'ſaid Ground and ancient Dues, it hath been agreed, that the clear annual Sum of ten Pounds ſhall be 'charged upon the ſaid Pier and Wharfs, and be paid out of the Tolls or Duties by this Act laid or im-'poſed, for the Benefit of the preſent and future Owners of the ſaid Ground, and the Perſon or Perſons 'who is, are, or could be intitled to claim and demand the ſaid ancient Dues;' be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid ancient Dues ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be, and the ſame are hereby extinguiſhed, and ſhall be no longer payable or demandable; and that the ſaid Ground and Soil whereon the ſaid Pier doth or ſhall ſtand or be erected, and alſo the ſaid Pieces of Ground herein before deſcribed, ſhall from thenceforth be, and the ſame are hereby accordingly veſted in the ſaid Truſtees and their Succeſſors, as Certain neceſſary Things to be done for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Ancient Dues to be extinguiſhed; and Ground for the Pier, and other Ground to be purchaſed, veſted in Truſtees.

as their abſolute Eſtate and Property, for the Purpoſes of this Act, for ever, free from all Charges, Incumbrances, and Eſtates whatſoever, ſubject only to the ſaid annual Sum of ten Pounds.

Pier and Wharfs chargeable with the Payment of 10l. per Annum for the Ground purchaſed.

'VII. And that in Conſideration thereof,' be it further enacted, That the ſaid Pier and Wharfs, and the Tolls and Duties hereby laid and impoſed, ſhall, in the firſt Place, be liable to and charged with the clear annual Sum of ten Pounds, to be paid and payable to the preſent and future Owners of the ſaid ancient Dues and Pieces of Ground herein-before deſcribed, for ever, at two Days or Times in the Year, by equal Portions, that is to ſay, the twenty-fourth Day of June and the Twenty-fifth Day of December in every Year, the firſt Payment thereof to begin and be made on ſuch of the ſaid Days as ſhall firſt happen after the paſſing of this Act; and that the Perſon or Perſons, the Poſſeſſors of Nanſwhydden and Manors of Mevagiſſey, who for the Time being ſhall be intitled to the ſaid annual Sum of ten Pounds, ſhall have and be intitled to all ſuch Powers and Remedies for recovering and receiving the ſame as are uſually given in the Caſes of Rent-charge.

Truſtees to pay the ſaid 10l. per Annum out of the Tolls.

'VIII. And, for the more regular and punctual Payment of the ſaid annual Sum of ten Pounds,' be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, and their Succeſſors, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and directed, from Time to Time, as the ſaid annual Sum ſhall become due, to pay the ſame out of the ſaid Truſt Monies then or which ſhall afterwards firſt come to their Hands, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Truſtees may purchaſe other Lands.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority to agree with the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of any other Buildings, Houſes, Grounds, or Eſtates, as they ſhall find neceſſary for them to be poſſeſſed of, or to be removed, or otherwiſe employed, for the better Execution of the Purpoſes of this Act.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, at their Will and Pleaſure, to dig up and take Earth from the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo bounded and deſcribed as aforeſaid, or any Lands and Grounds lying adjacent thereto, or to any of their Works; and to make, raiſe, and ſet up, or cauſe to be made, raiſed, and ſet up, ſupported, widened, and cleanſed, all ſuch Mills, Engines, Sluices, Bridges, Tunnels, Banks, Cuts, Drains, Dams, Outlets, or other Works, in, through, or upon the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo abutted and deſcribed as aforeſaid, or any of them, or in, through, or upon any Part of the North Bank of the ſaid River Nene, between Guyhirn Croſs and a certain Lane in Wiſbech Saint Peter's called Barton Lane, or in, through, or upon any Part of the Weſt Bank of the ſaid River, from the North Side of the Turnpike Houſe in Wiſbech Saint Peter's to the Lands in the Pariſh of Leverington, as they ſhall think neceſſary and convenient for the draining of the Waters from the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo abutted and deſcribed as aforeſaid, into the ſaid River; and that they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have full Power and Authority over all and ſingular the ſaid Works ſo to be made, and alſo over the Mills already ſet up for the draining of the ſaid Lands and Grounds, called The White and Red Engines, and the Houſes, Drains, Sluices, Tunnels, and other Works thereto belonging, and to alter, repair, rebuild, enlarge, widen, or deepen the ſame, and alſo over all and ſingular the Tunnels, Sluices, and other Works already made and ſet up in the Banks of the ſaid River Nene, between Guyhirn Croſs and Barton Lane aforeſaid; and to alter, repair, rebuild, enlarge, widen, deepen, uſe, or take up the ſame, as they ſhall think proper and neceſſary for the better draining of the ſaid Lands and Grounds ſo abutted and deſcribed as aforeſaid; and alſo ſhall have full Power and Authority over all and ſingular the Banks, Bridges, Cuts, Drains, Dams, Headings, Outlets, Sluices, or other Works of draining, already made or ſet up within the Limits of the ſaid Lands and Grounds ſo abutted and deſcribed as aforeſaid; and alſo to fell and take down all ſuch Trees, Wood, and Buſhes, as ſhall or may, at any Time or Times, be Obſtructions or Impediments to the working of the ſaid Mills, or any of them, or to the ſaid Drainage, they the ſaid Commiſſioners paying to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, as ſhall or may have a Right or Property in or to any ſeveral Lands and Grounds from which any Earth ſhall be ſo dug up or taken, or through or upon which any ſuch Bank, Bridge, Cut, Drain, Dam, Outlet, Mill, Engine, Sluice, or other Work, ſhall be made or ſet up, or as ſhall and may ſuſtain any Damage by the removing of the ſaid Obſtructions and Impediments, ſuch Satisfaction for the Damages they ſhall reſpectively ſuſtain thereby, as ſhall be agreed upon by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and the Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, having ſuch Right or Property, or ſuſtaining ſuch Damage as aforeſaid: And if the ſaid Commiſſioners, and the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, having ſuch Right or Property, or ſuſtaining ſuch Damage as aforeſaid, cannot agree upon the Value and Amount of the ſaid Damages; then, and in ſuch Caſe, paying ſuch Satisfaction as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Iſle of Ely, or the major Part of them, not intereſted, at any General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Iſle, within twelve Months next after ſuch Damages ſhall be done; and ſuch Juſtices are hereby authoriſed to examine into, hear, and determine, the Value and Amount of ſuch Damages upon the Oath of one or more Witneſs or Witneſſes, and their Determinations ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties: Provided, that if, before any ſuch Application to the ſaid Juſtices, the Satisfaction agreed to be paid by the ſaid Commiſſioners to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, as ſhall or may have ſuch Right or Property, or ſuſtain ſuch Damages as aforeſaid, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices adjudged a ſufficient Recompence for the Damages which ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, ſhall or may ſuſtain thereby; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Coſts and Charges of ſuch Application to the ſaid Juſtices ſhall be borne and paid by the Perſon or Perſons, Body Corporate or Bodies Corporate, making ſuch Application; ſuch Coſts and Charges to be aſcertained and taxed by the ſaid Juſtices to whom ſuch Application ſhall be made.

Saving Clauſe.

VIII. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to give any Power or Authority to the ſaid Commiſſioners to make or widen any Cut, or ſet down any Sluice, or other Work, in or through the Banks of the ſaid River, or either of them, or in or through the Turnpike Road, without making good ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Banks or Road where the ſaid Cut, Sluice, or other Work ſhall be made, and maintaining and ſupporting the ſame ſo long as the ſaid Cut, Sluice, or other Work ſhall continue; or to alter, take up, or diſannul any Sluice, Cut, or other Work, made or to be made, in or through the ſaid Banks, or either of them, without making good the Breaches occaſioned thereby; or to ſet up, or have any other Mill or Mills (other than and except the ſaid White and Red Engines) for the carrying of the Waters from the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo abutted and deſcribed as aforeſaid, into the ſaid River, through any other Part of the Banks of the ſame than ſuch Part thereof as is ſituate between Guyhirn Croſs and Bevis Hall; or to remove the ſaid White and Red Engines, or either of them, from the reſpective Places where they now ſtand; and that no Earth ſhall be taken for any Purpoſe whatſoever from any Place or Places within ſixty Feet of Murrow Bank, or of any of the Banks of the ſaid River Nene; and alſo that no Earth ſhall be taken from any of the adjacent Lands and Grounds, unleſs the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo deſcribed and abutted as aforeſaid, ſhall be overflowed with Water in ſuch Manner that Earth cannot be had or taken therefrom within fifty Yards of the Place where the ſaid Earth is to be laid by virtue of this Act.

'IX. And, for the preventing of the Waters in the ſaid Drain from overflowing the Banks thereof, or 'running too high between the White and Red Mills, to the Damage of the Lands lying on each Side 'thereof, in the Pariſh of Leverington and in The Nine Hundred,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That

That in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall at any Time or Times make any Alteration in the Dimenſions of the ſaid White Mill, by enlarging the ſame, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall alſo enlarge the ſaid Red Mill proportionably, and ſo as to exceed the Dimenſions of the ſaid White Mill in ſuch Proportion as Sea Mills uſually exceed the Dimenſions of Land Mills; and that an Overfall of Brick ſhall be ſet up and built near the ſaid White Mill, of ſuch Height, and in ſuch Manner, as they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper and neceſſary for the effectual ſtopping of the ſaid Waters, and preventing their overflowing the Banks of the ſaid Drain, or running too high in the ſame, to the Damage of the ſaid Lands on each Side of the ſaid Drain.

If the White Mill be enlarged, the Red Mill to be alſo enlarged.

How Earth may be taken away to widen the Drain at Tun Green, &c.

'XI. And, foraſmuch as the Preſervation of the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo abutted and deſcribed as 'aforeſaid, in a great Meaſure depends upon the keeping of a ſufficient Bank between the ſaid Lands and 'Grounds and the Common of Leverington, and Leverington Parſon Drove, and therefore the Owners and 'Proprietors of the ſaid Lands and Grounds, notwithſtanding the ſaid Bank is now repaired, ſupported, 'and maintained, by the Land Owners of Leverington and Leverington Parſon Drove aforeſaid, are deſirous 'of taking upon themſelves the Burthen and Expence of raiſing, ſupporting, and maintaining the ſame, 'from Murrow Bank to the White Engine;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, at their Will and Pleaſure, to amend, raiſe, ſupport, maintain and keep, at their own Expence, the ſaid Bank, from Murrow Bank aforeſaid to the White Engine, of a Height and Breadth ſufficient for the Defence of the ſaid Lands and Grounds, ſo deſcribed and abutted as aforeſaid, againſt the Waters of Leverington and Leverington Parſon Drove; and that they the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the amending, raiſing, ſupporting, maintaining, and keeping up of the ſaid Bank, ſhall, and lawfully may, from Time to Time, and at all Times, enter upon the ſaid Common, and take from thence all ſuch Earth as ſhall be neceſſary and wanting for the amending, raiſing, ſupporting, maintaining, and keeping of the ſaid Bank of the ſaid Height and Breadth, without paying or making any Recompence for the ſame: Provided, that no Earth ſhall be taken for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or any of them, at a greater Diſtance than thirty Feet from the Brink of the preſent Drain running between the ſaid Lands and Grounds and the ſaid Common.

Commiſſioners impowered to ſupport the Bank from Murrow Bank to the White Engine.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be, and they are hereby authoriſed and directed to lay down Bridges in all Places where all or any of the Drains already cut and thrown out, or to be cut and thrown out, under and by virtue of this Act, ſhall croſs any Road or publick Highway, and the ſaid Bridges to ſupport and keep as publick Bridges, for the Paſſage of Horſes, Beaſts, Cattle, and Carriages of all Sorts.

Bridges to be provided where neceſſary.

XIII. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Proprietors of the Lands lying on the North Side of the ſaid Drain, between Little Dowgate and the Red Mill, ſhall and may have a Paſſage into their ſaid Lands over the ſaid Drain, for Horſes, Carts, and Carriages; and ſhall and may, from Time to Time, and at all Times, have free Liberty to lay Bridges, or raiſe Arches, over any Part or Parts thereof, between Little Dowgate aforeſaid and the Red Mill, for ſuch Paſſage, and from Time to Time to repair, amend, and keep up the ſaid Bridges and Arches, provided that they the ſaid Proprietors do not thereby, or by Means thereof, leſſen or narrow the ſaid Drain, or choak or fill up the ſame with Earth, Bricks, Rubbiſh, or in any other Manner whatſoever.

Proprietors of Lands lying on the North Side of the Drain between Little Dowgate and the Red Mill to have free Paſſage over the ſame.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered to make ſuch Orders, and give ſuch Directions, for the ſaid ſeveral Works of Draining, and for the managing, maintaining, and ſupporting of the ſame, as they ſhall think fit; and ſhall and may appoint one or more Clerk or Clerks, Receiver or Receivers, Collector or Collectors, and ſuch other Officers, for the making and taking Care of ſuch Works, and for the collecting of the Rates and Aſſeſſments to be laid and aſſeſſed for the making and ſupporting thereof, or for any other of the Purpoſes of this Act, as they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper; and ſhall and may allow ſuch Officers, and every of them, reaſonable Salaries for their Trouble; and ſhall and may, from Time to Time, as they ſhall ſee Occaſion, remove any ſuch Clerks, Collectors, Receivers, or Officers, and appoint others in the Places of ſuch of them as ſhall be ſo removed, and in caſe of the Death of any of them, in the Place of ſuch of them as ſhall ſo die; and that every Collector and Receiver, ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, before he or they ſhall act in the Execution of his or their Office, ſhall give ſuch Security to the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the due Execution of the ſame, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper; and ſhall account and produce his or their Vouchers for all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as he or they ſhall receive or pay by virtue of their ſaid Office, at the ſaid General Meeting in every Year, and pay over the Balance of ſuch Accounts remaining in his or their Hands, if any ſuch there be, into the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners there aſſembled, or as they, or the major Part of them, ſhall direct or appoint.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, is a very ancient Borough, within the Liberties whereof there are a Port, Haven, and Harbour of the Sea, for importing and exporting Merchandiſe; and the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough have, as well by Preſcription as Royal Charter, been a Corporation for two hundred Years laſt paſt and upwards; and by virtue and in purſuance of certain Letters Patent, granted them by Queen Elizabeth, bearing Date on or about the tenth Day of February in the fifteenth Year of her Reign, have and do now uſe and exerciſe Admiralty Juriſdiction within the ſaid Borough and Port of the ſame; and alſo the Roads, and all and ſingular the Deeps, commonly called The Norman Deeps; and alſo all and all Manner of Places and Parts and Watercourſes, and the Streams of the Waſhes near and in the Parts of Holland, extending to the Haven or Place called Wainfleet Haven, and to a certain Place called Pullye Heads, and to another Place or Sand called The Knock, and to another Place called The Dog's Head in the Pot, and to the uttermoſt Limits of the Flowing and Ebbing of the Waters aforeſaid and every of them, and adjoining to the Sea and Floods and Streams of the Borders and Confines of the County of Norfolk; and by virtue of the ſame Letters Patent, and others ſince granted to them by the Crown, and by long Uſage have erected and put down proper Buoys and Beacons in the Channel of the ſaid Port: And whereas the Entrance into the ſaid Port is, by the continual Shifting and Alteration of the Sands, become very dangerous without the Aſſiſtance of a ſkilful Pilot, and many Ships have of late Years been endangered, owing to the Negligence and Ignorance of the Perſons who take upon them to conduct Ships and Veſſels into and out of the ſaid Port; and the Prices or Rates of Pilotage there are not at preſent ſettled by any Law or Charter: And whereas a proper Regulation of the Pilots at the ſaid Port, and the aſcertaining of their Rates or Prices, would tend greatly to promote and encourage Trade and Navigation, and be of public Utility: And whereas much Danger and Miſchief may happen to Ships and Trading Veſſels lying in the ſaid Haven and Harbour, occaſioned by Fire made uſe of in heating of Pitch, Tar, Roſin, Oil, or other combuſtible Matters, on board ſuch Ships and Veſſels: And whereas Mooring-poſts, to be affixed and ſet down in proper Places upon the Banks or High Marſhes within or adjoining to the ſaid Haven and Harbour, for the more effectually ſecuring the Ships and Veſſels riding therein, and alſo Bridges of Wood to be affixed and laid down over ſeveral of the Creeks within or adjoining to the ſaid Haven and Harbour, for the Convenience of towing or haling of Ships and Veſſels into and out of the ſaid Port, are much wanted, and Letters Patent granted to the Corporation by Queen Elizabeth, recited.

Proprietors to erect Weirs upon the Canal above Bell's Mill.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Company of Proprietors, and their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall, and they are hereby required, at their own Coſts and Charges, to erect, and at all Times thereafter to ſupport and maintain, one or more Weir or Weirs upon the ſaid Canal above Bell's Mill, not more than one Inch and an Half higher than the Weirs to be made at the Lock next below Bell's Mill, (the Lock Weirs not to be more than twenty Feet wide, and the Flood Weir or Weirs above Bell's Mill not to be leſs than forty Feet) ſo as to turn and convey into the River Stour all the waſte and ſuperfluous Water ariſing from or running into the ſaid Canal which will not be wanted for the Uſe thereof.

No Quays, &c. to be made in Mr. Foſter's Land in Nager's Fields.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to extend to impower the ſaid Company of Proprietors, their Succeſſors or Aſſigns, to make or erect any Quay, Wharf, Crane, Weighing-beam, Mill, or Warehouſe, in any of the Lands belonging to the ſaid John Foſter, ſituate at Wordeſley, in the ſaid Pariſh of Kingſwinford, called Nager's Fields.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Towing-path through and over the Lands and Grounds of the ſaid John Foſter called Nager's Fields, ſhall not be made on the South Side of the ſaid collateral Cuts, unleſs with the Conſent in Writing of the ſaid John Foſter, his Heirs or Aſſigns.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Land and Ground to be taken or uſed for ſuch Canal, and collateral Cuts and Towing-paths, and the Ditches, Drains, and Fences, to ſeparate ſuch Towing-paths from the adjoining Lands, ſhall not exceed twenty-ſix Yards in Breadth, except in ſuch Places where the ſaid Canal or collateral Cuts ſhall be reſpectively raiſed higher, or cut above five Feet deeper, than the preſent Surface of the Land, and in ſuch Places where it ſhall be judged neceſſary for Boats and other Veſſels to turn, lie, or paſs each other, nor more than ſixty Yards in Breadth in any of thoſe Places; nor ſhall any Land or Ground be ſet out, aſcertained, contracted for, and ſold, for the Purpoſe of making any navigable Cut, Trench, or Sluice, to convey Commodities, or other Things, to or from the ſaid Canal or collateral Cuts, without the Conſent of the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Lands reſpectively, under his or their Hands in Writing firſt had and obtained; nor for more than one thouſand Yards in Length with ſuch Conſent; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Power to take Water from Mines;

'XVII. And whereas the making ſuch Canal and collateral Cuts will be of particular Advantage to the 'Owners and Proprietors of certain Coal-mines already opened, and which may be opened, contiguous or 'near to the ſaid collateral Cuts; and it will be neceſſary for ſupplying the ſaid Canal and collateral Cuts 'with Water, that the Water to be raiſed by the Fire-engines, or other Machines, erected or to be erected 'for the draining of the ſaid Mines, ſhould be diſcharged into the ſaid Canal or collateral Cuts,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Company of Proprietors, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, at all Times hereafter, to have, divert, and take, the Water to be raiſed or drained, by means of certain Fire-engines already erected near to the Courſe of the ſaid intended collateral Cuts, and which belong to John Pidcock, Benjamin Brettell, and Jeremiah Brettell, as Copartners, and to the ſaid Jeremiah Brettell, Thomas Seager, and John Parker, individually, as alſo the Water which may be got, raiſed, or conveyed from or by Means of any other Fire-engine, Machine, or Level, which now is or are, or ſhall or may, at any Time or Times hereafter, be erected, made, or opened, in or upon any Lands or Mines belonging to the Right

'LVII. And whereas by an Act, paſſed in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, certain
'Perſons therein named, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, were incorporated by the Name of The Company of
'Proprietors of the Staffordſhire and Worceſterſhire Canal Navigation, and were thereby enabled to make
'a navigable Canal from the River Severn, between Bewdley and Titton-brook, in the County of Worceſter,
'to join and communicate with a Canal then intended to be made between the River Trent and the River
'Merſey, at or near Haywood-mill, in the County of Stafford; and to raiſe ſuch Sums of Money for ac-

'whereas the Navigation intended to be made by virtue of this Act will fall into and communicate with
'the ſaid Staffordſhire and Worceſterſhire Canal Navigation, at or near a certain Place called The River
'Stour Aqueduct, near Stourton, in the ſaid County of Stafford, which, by the Courſe of the Staffordſhire
'and Worceſterſhire Canal, is about twelve Miles and an Half diſtant from the River Severn, where the ſaid
'Staffordſhire and Worceſterſhire Canal falls into the ſaid River; by means whereof the Owners of Coal-
'mines lying in the Neighbourhood of Stourbridge will be enabled greatly to underſell the Owners of 'Coal-mines lying in the Neighbourhood of Bilſton, Coſeley, and Tipton, in the County of Stafford, at
'the Severn Markets, which will tend to the manifeſt Injury of the ſaid Collieries as well as of the ſaid
'Staffordſhire and Worceſterſhire Canal Navigation, unleſs Powers are given to the ſaid Company of Pro'prietors of the Staffordſhire and Worceſterſhire Canal Navigation to regulate their Tonnage upon Coals
'in ſuch Manner as to bring the ſame, from all the ſaid reſpective Coal-mines, to the Market of the Pub-

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for veſting in John Liardet, Clerk, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, the ſole Uſe and Property of a certain Compoſition or Cement of his Invention, throughout his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain, and in the Colonies and Plantations abroad, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS his moſt Excellent Majeſty King George the Third, by his Letters Patent under the 'Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the Third Day of April, which was in 'the Thirteenth Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto John Liardet, of Great Suffolk-ſtreet, in the 'Pariſh of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middleſex, Clerk, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, 'and Aſſigns, his ſole Privilege and Authority to make, uſe, exerciſe, and vend, a certain Compoſition 'or Cement, for all the Branches concerning Buildings to which the ſame was applicable, within that 'Part of Great Britain called England, his Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and 'in any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, for the Term of fourteen Years: And whereas, 'unleſs the Term granted by the ſaid Letters Patent be prolonged, and the Property of the ſaid John 'Liardet in the ſaid Invention better ſecured, not only within that Part of Great Britain called England, 'the Dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in his Majeſty's Colonies and Planta'tions abroad, but alſo within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it will neither be poſſible for the 'ſaid John Liardet, to receive an adequate Recompence for his Labour, Expence, and Time, nor for the 'Public at large to reap the various Advantages in Point of Utility and Oeconomy, as well as Ornament 'in Building, which would ariſe from this Invention were its Uſe univerſally diffuſed, and its Price low'ered, upon which the Demand, and conſequently the Profits of the Proprietor, muſt depend: And 'whereas the Cement from its Nature grows too hard for Uſe if not uſed ſoon after it is made, and there'fore muſt be made where uſed, or near it, from which Circumſtance the Uſe thereof has hitherto been 'confined to the Metropolis and a few Miles about it, as training Workmen and erecting Works is diffi'cult and expenſive: And whereas, if the Term is not enlarged, the ſame narrow Plan muſt be conti'nued, a general Plan of erecting Works and training Men all over the Kingdom, which is neceſſary if 'the

'the Uſe of the Cement is to be univerſal, cannot upon ſo ſhort a Proſpect be undertaken, the Circle 'cannot be enlarged, and the Price muſt continue ſuch as may indemnify the Proprietor for his Expence, 'out of the Profits ariſing from a very ſmall Conſumption only, during his preſent Term: To the End 'therefore that the ſaid John Liardet may be enabled and encouraged to proſecute and complete his ſaid 'Invention, ſo that the Public may reap all the Advantages to be derived therefrom in their fulleſt Extent,' may it pleaſe your Majeſty (at the humble Petition of the ſaid John Liardet) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſole Privilege and Advantage of making, uſing, exerciſing, and vending, the ſaid Compoſition or Cement mentioned in the ſaid Letters Patent, with the Additions and Improvements ſince made therein, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, ſhall be, and the ſame is and are hereby declared to be, veſted in the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for and during the Term of Eighteen Years from thenceforth next enſuing, and fully to be complete and ended; and that he the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them, by himſelf and themſelves, or by his or their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or ſuch others as he, the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times during the Term of Years herein before laſt mentioned, ſhall, and lawfully may, make, uſe, exerciſe, and vend, the ſaid Compoſition or Cement herein before mentioned, with all and every the Additions and Improvements thereof, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and in his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, in ſuch Manner as to him the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, or any of them, ſhall in his or their Diſcretion ſeem meet; and that the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, and every of them, ſhall, and lawfully may, have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time coming, growing, accruing, and ariſing, by Reaſon of the ſaid Invention, for and during the ſaid Term of eighteen Years herein before mentioned, to have, hold, exerciſe, and enjoy, the ſaid Privileges and Authorities, and every Part thereof, unto the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for and during and unto the full End and Term of eighteen Years as aforeſaid; and that no other Perſon or Perſons, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or in any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, ſhall at any Time, during the ſaid Term of eighteen Years, either directly or indirectly, make, uſe, or put in Practice, the ſaid Invention, or any Part of the ſame, nor in anywiſe counterfeit, imitate, or reſemble the ſame, nor ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any Addition thereunto or Subſtraction from the ſame, whereby to pretend himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves, the Inventor or Inventors, Deviſor or Deviſors thereof, without the Licence, Conſent, or Agreement, of the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals firſt had and obtained in that Behalf, upon ſuch Pains and Penalties as can or may be juſtly inflicted on ſuch Offender or Offenders for his, her, or their Contempt of this Act, and further to be anſwerable to the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, according to Law, for his and their Damages thereby occaſioned.

The ſole Privilege of making and vending the Cement veſted in John Liardet, his Executors, &c. for eighteen Years.

Penalty on other Perſons making Cement without Licence, &c.

'II. And whereas the ſaid John Liardet has hitherto furniſhed the ſaid Cement at the Rate of Sixpence 'per Foot Square on the Surfaces of all plain Buildings, and Two-pence per Foot running Meaſure for 'Arriſes; to the End therefore that the Public may be aſſured of the Advantage of this Invention at the 'ſame Price during the Continuance of this Act,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, during the Continuance of this Act, to aſk, demand, or take, any greater Price than Sixpence by the Foot Square, and Two-pence per Foot as aforeſaid for Arriſes, for covering any plain Work with the aforeſaid Cement or Compoſition.

John Liardet not to ſell his Cement dearer than certain Prices mentioned.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prejudice or hinder any Perſon or Perſons from making or uſing any Compoſition or Cement, or any Thing relating thereto, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or for any other Purpoſe, which is or are not at preſent of the Invention or Application of the ſaid John Liardet, or which has or have been publicly uſed or exerciſed by any other Perſon or Perſons before the Date of the ſaid Letters Patent herein before recited; but that all ſuch Compoſition or Cement, and every Thing relating thereto, which is or are not at preſent of the Invention of the ſaid John Liardet, or is or are not particularly aſcertained and deſcribed in the Inſtrument or Specification herein after mentioned, ſhall be and remain to the Public, and to the reſpective Inventor or Inventors thereof, in like Manner as if this Act had never been made, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Act not to hinder the making any Compoſition which is not the Invention of John Liardet, &c.

IV. And be it hereby declared and enacted, That every Objection which might have been made to the ſaid Cement's not being a new Invention, within the true Intent and Meaning of an Act of the twenty-firſt of James the Firſt, ſufficient to invalidate Letters Patent, may be made in Bar to any Action brought by virtue or in conſequence of this Act.

V. Provided always, That if the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, or any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall, at any Time during the ſaid Term of eighteen Years, have or claim any Right, Title, or Intereſt, in Law or Equity, of, in, or to, the Power, Privilege, or Authority, of the ſole making, uſing, exerciſing, and vending, the ſaid Compoſition or Cement, ſhall make any Transfer or Aſſignment, or pretended Transfer or Aſſignment, of the ſaid Liberty or Privilege hereby veſted in the ſaid John Liardet, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profits thereof, or ſhall declare any Truſts thereof to or for any Number of Perſons exceeding the Number of Five; or ſhall open, or cauſe to be opened, any Book or Books for public Subſcriptions to be made by any Number of Perſons exceeding the Number of Five, in order to the raiſing of any Sum or Sums of Money under Pretence of carrying on the ſaid Liberty or Privilege hereby veſted in the ſaid John Liardet, his

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Statutes now in Force for the Diſcovery and Puniſhment of Deer Stealers are numerous, and many of them ineffectual: And whereas the good Purpoſes thereby intended might be better effected, if ſuch of the ſaid Statutes as are found to be defective were repealed, and ſuch good Proviſions as are therein contained, together with ſuch further Proviſions as may be expedient, were reduced into one Act;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall courſe or hunt, or ſhall take in any Slip, Nooſe, Toyle, or Snare, or ſhall kill, wound, or deſtroy, or ſhall ſhoot at, or otherwiſe attempt to kill, wound, or deſtroy, or ſhall carry away, any Red or Fallow Deer, in any Foreſt, Chaſe, Purlieu, or ancient Walk, whether incloſed or not, or in any incloſed Park, Paddock, Wood, or other incloſed Ground, where Deer are, have been, or ſhall be uſually kept, without the Conſent of the Owner, or without being otherwiſe duly authoriſed, or ſhall be aiding, abetting, or aſſiſting therein or thereunto, every Perſon ſo offending, by courſing, hunting, ſhooting at, or otherwiſe attempting to kill, wound, or deſtroy, or by aiding therein or thereunto, ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and every Perſon ſo offending by killing, wounding, or deſtroying, or by taking in any Slip, Nooſe, Toyle, or Snare, or by carrying away, or by aiding therein reſpectively, ſhall, for every Deer ſo wounded, killed, deſtroyed, taken, or carried away, forfeit and pay the Sum of thirty Pounds; and if the Offender in any of the Caſes aforeſaid ſhall be a Keeper of, or Perſon in any Manner entruſted with the Cuſtody or Care of Deer, in the Foreſt, Chaſe, Purlieu, ancient Walk, or incloſed Park, Paddock, or Wood, or other incloſed Place, where the Offence ſhall be committed, every ſuch Offender ſhall forfeit and pay double the Penalty herein before appointed to be paid by other Offenders; and if any Perſon or Perſons, after having been convicted of any of the aforeſaid Offences, ſhall offend a ſecond Time againſt this Act, by committing any of the aforeſaid Offences, ſuch ſecond Offence, whether it be the ſame as the firſt Offence, or be any other of the aforeſaid Offences, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be Felony, and the Perſon guilty thereof, being lawfully convicted upon Indictment, ſhall be tranſported to one of his Majeſty's Plantations in America for the Space of ſeven Years.

had been in Force at the Time of ſuch firſt Conviction, and as if ſuch Conviction had been made under the Proviſions of this Act.

'III. And, to the Intent that the Proſecution of Perſons who ſhall offend a ſecond Time in Manner 'aforeſaid, may be carried on with as little Expence and Trouble as is poſſible,' be it further enacted, That the Juſtice before whom any Perſon ſhall, after the Commencement of this Act, be convicted for the firſt Time of any of the Offences before deſcribed, ſhall tranſmit ſuch Conviction, under his Hand and Seal, to the Quarter Seſſion which next after ſuch Conviction ſhall be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town, or Place, wherein ſuch firſt Offence ſhall be committed, there to be filed by the Clerk of the Peace, and to be kept amongſt the Records of the Peace; and ſuch Conviction ſo filed, or a true Copy thereof certified and ſubſcribed by ſuch Clerk of the Peace, ſhall be ſufficient Evidence to prove the Conviction of ſuch firſt Offence as aforeſaid.

Juſtices may grant Warrants to ſearch ſuſpected Houſes, &c. for Heads and Skins of Deer, &c. Penalty on Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody any ſuch ſhall be found, &c.

'and remain binding upon the ſaid Earl, and all Perſons claiming under him, and his and their Leſſees 'and Tenants, from Time to Time, with reſpect to the ſaid Limeſtone lying in the ſaid Pariſh of Alveton: 'And whereas the ſaid Company have made ſuch Contract and Agreement with Intent to ſerve the Public 'with Limeſtone on the cheapeſt and moſt reaſonable Terms, and are deſirous of having the ſaid Agree-'ment executed and performed in ſuch Manner as ſhall diſtribute the Benefit thereof moſt generally and 'equally:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Contract and Agreement ſo made as aforeſaid ſhall be, and is hereby ratified and confirmed, and ſhall be and for ever remain binding upon the ſaid Company, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, and the ſaid ſeveral Proprietors of Limeſtone aforeſaid, their reſpective Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators; and that the ſaid Limeſtone ſhall be got and provided by the ſaid ſeveral Proprietors thereof, at the Rate and Price aforeſaid, in ſuch Proportions as ſhall be agreed amongſt them, and approved by the ſaid Company, before the laſt Day of September for the Year then next ſucceeding; and, in Default of ſuch Agreement and Approbation, the ſame ſhall be got and provided in the Proportions following; (that is to ſay) Two Fifth Parts thereof by the ſaid Earl of Shrewſbury, his Leſſees or Tenants, out of the Quarry lying in the ſaid Pariſh of Alveton; One Fifth Part thereof out of the Lands of the ſaid Thomas Gilbert, called The Low Pieces, in the ſaid Pariſh of Caldon; One other Fifth Part out of the Land of the ſaid Henry Copeſtake, called Hemingſlow or Caldonlow, in the ſaid Pariſh of Caldon; and the remaining Fifth Part out of the Land of the ſaid Robert Bell, Sampſon Whieldon, and William Woolliſcroft, called The Quarter Piece, in the Pariſh of Caldon aforeſaid: And to the Intent the Public may be ſupplied with Limeſtone as punctually and conveniently as may be, the ſaid Company, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall, and are hereby required to direct one of their Clerks, whoſe Name and Place of Reſidence they ſhall notify to the Public, to provide a Book, and make Entries therein of the Quantities of Limeſtone which any Perſon or Perſons ſhall order under the Authority of this Act, which Order ſhall be given, and Entry made, on or before the laſt Day of September, for Stone to be delivered in the then ſucceeding Year; and the ſaid Company, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall, and are hereby required to diſtribute ſuch Orders amongſt the ſaid ſeveral Proprietors of Limeſtone, in the Proportions aforeſaid, as near as conveniently may be, and notify the ſame to them on or before the fifteenth Day of October then next following.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to remove the Danger of Fire amongſt the Ships in the Port of Briſtol, by preventing the landing certain Commodities on the preſent Quays; and for providing a convenient Quay and proper Places for landing and ſtoring the ſame; and for regulating the ſaid Quay, and the Lighters, Boats, and other Veſſels carrying Goods for Hire within the ſaid Port of Briſtol; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Port of Briſtol is a Place of great Trade and Commerce, and the Ships and Veſſels lying at the Quays thereof are by the Efflux of the Tide left dry twice in every twenty-four Hours, whereby they frequently receive Damage: And whereas great Quantities of Timber, Deals, Staves, Tar, Pitch, Roſin, and Turpentine, have for many Years paſt been imported into the ſaid Port, particularly in the Summer Months, during which Time it has frequently happened that there has not been Room within a convenient Diſtance from the ſaid Quays for ſtoring the ſame, by reaſon whereof, and of the Expence of removing the ſame, which on Articles ſo cumbrous and of ſuch low Value amounts to a great Charge, the Quays have been often through Neceſſity greatly incumbered, and the Danger of Fire to the Ships in the Port much dreaded: And whereas the Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the ſaid City of Briſtol, have from Time to Time expended very large Sums of Money for the Benefit of the Navigation and Trade of the ſaid Port, and with a View to provide a Remedy for the afore-mentioned Inconveniencies, have purchaſed certain Docks and Yards in the Pariſh of Cliſton, in the County of Glouceſter, adjoining to the River Avon within the ſaid Port, and have, at a very conſiderable Expence, rendered one of the ſaid Docks, now called The Floating-dock, capable of receiving and floating the largeſt Ships uſing the ſaid Port: And whereas the Danger of Fire to the Ships in the ſaid Port and to the City of Briſtol would be greatly leſſened, and it would be more beneficial to all Perſons uſing the Trade of the ſaid Port, if the ſaid Floating-dock was enlarged on the North-weſtern Side thereof, and rendered capable of containing a greater Number of Ships than at preſent, and if a convenient Quay, with proper Storehouſes, Warehouſes, Sheds, and Yards, were built, erected, made, and laid out for landing, ſtoring, and laying up, the afore-mentioned Articles of Trade: And whereas the ſaid Society are willing to enlarge the ſaid Floating-dock, and to build ſuch Quay as aforeſaid, and to erect and make the ſeveral other Works before mentioned; but cannot effect the ſame, and completely remedy the Inconveniencies afore-recited, without the Aid of Parliament;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the ſaid City of Briſtol, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered to enlarge the ſaid Dock called The Floating-dock, on the North-weſtern Side thereof, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think proper; and likewiſe to build and make a convenient Quay on ſuch North-weſtern Side, with proper Storehouſes, Warehouſes, Sheds, Yards, and Places, for landing, ſtoring, and laying up the ſaid Goods.

Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the Society of Merchant Venturers, impowered to enlarge the Floating-dock, and to build Storehouſes, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Land and Ground ſituate on the North-weſtern Side of, and adjoining to, the ſaid Floating-dock, and extending in Breadth on or towards the North-weſt from the Quay-wall of the ſaid Floating-dock (whether in its preſent State, or as the ſame ſhall be enlarged) two hundred Feet, and extending of the ſame Breadth from the Water of Avon to the North-eaſt End of the ſaid Dock (whether in its preſent State, or as the ſame ſhall be hereafter enlarged), ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be, a Quay for the landing all Sorts and Kinds of Timber (including Mahogany), Planks and Boards, Deals and Staves, Tar, Pitch, Roſin, and Turpentine, in whatever Quantities the ſame ſhall from Time to Time be imported into the ſaid Port of Briſtol in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever: Provided the Owners of ſuch Goods do firſt paſs a regular Entry thereof, and pay the Cuſtom and other Duties, and before they unſhip any of the Goods give Notice of the Day and Hour of Landing, in Writing, to the principal Officers of the Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port of Briſtol for the Time being, that they may direct the proper Officers to attend accordingly; and provided that none of the Goods be unſhipped but in the Preſence of a Waiter or Officer ſo appointed thereunto, otherwiſe the ſaid Goods to be liable to Forfeiture according to Law.

Ground allotted for a new Quay.

Rules to be obſerved by Merchants.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever to land any Timber, Planks, or Boards of any Sort or Kind, Deals, Staves, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Roſin, or other the Commodities aforeſaid, on any Part of the preſent Quays within the ſaid City of Briſtol, from or out of any Ship or Veſſel coming into the ſaid Port of Briſtol (except in the Caſes herein after mentioned), Two Third Parts of the Cargo whereof ſhall conſiſt of all or any of the ſaid Articles, or from or out of any Lighter, Boat, or other Veſſel, bringing the ſame from any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, upon Pain of forfeiting, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds; and the Maſter or Owner, or other Perſon having the Command, Charge, or Care, of any Ship or Veſſel coming into the ſaid Port of Briſtol after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, which ſhall be in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy ſeven, Two Third Parts of the Cargo whereof ſhall conſiſt of all, any, or either of the ſaid Articles (the Proportion of ſuch Cargo to be aſcertained by the Tonnage of the whole Cargo), ſhall cauſe the ſaid Ship or Veſſel to be unladen of all ſuch Articles at the ſaid new-intended Quay, upon Pain of forfeiting fifty Pounds for each Offence.

or hereafter ſhall be concerned in the ſaid Pilchard-fiſhery within the ſaid Bay of Saint Ives, in proportion to the Number of Seynes they reſpectively do or ſhall employ therein.

When Seyne is partly ſhot in one Stem, the Remainder may be ſhot in the adjoining Stem, if the Fiſh go thither.

'XXII. And whereas it frequently happens, that, after Fiſh are within the Limits of any of the ſaid 'ſix ſeveral Stems or Stations, and the Boat then holding Turn or Stem upon ſome one of ſuch Stations 'hath begun to ſhoot out her Seyne, the Fiſh ſtart back or paſs into the Limits of one of the next Stems 'or Stations;' be it therefore enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Boat, which hath begun to ſhoot her Seyne when the Fiſh were within the Limits of the Stem or Station upon which ſhe held or was intitled to Turn or Stem as aforeſaid, to continue to ſhoot out the Remainder of her Seyne in the adjoining Stem or Station into which the ſaid Fiſh ſhall go or paſs.

'XXV. And whereas, when more than two Seyne-nets are moored together, it may frequently hap'pen, by the Violence of the Tide or otherwiſe, that the Anchors of ſome of the outermoſt of the ſaid
'Seyne-nets may drive or ſtart, or the Mooring-ropes belonging or faſtened to ſuch Anchors may part or 'break, by Means whereof the Sides of the inner Seyne-net or Nets may be forced too near together, ſo as
'to endanger the Loſs of the Fiſh encloſed therein;' be it therefore further enacted, That in all ſuch Caſes the Owners of ſuch outermoſt Seyne-net, whoſe Anchors ſhall drive, or Mooring-ropes part, as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon Notice being given to any one of ſuch Owners, or to the Hewer of ſuch Seyne or Maſter Seyner thereof, immediately aſſiſt and ſend one Boat, manned with five Men at the leaſt, to replace the ſaid outermoſt Seyne in its proper Birth or Station again; and in caſe of any Neglect or Refuſal to afford ſuch Aſſiſtance as aforeſaid, the Owners or Maſter Seyner of the inner Seyne-net or Nets, ſo in Danger of loſing their Fiſh as aforeſaid, ſhall be at Liberty to replace ſuch outermoſt Seyne into its proper Birth or Situation, and the Owner or Owners of ſuch outermoſt Seyne neglecting to afford ſuch Aſſiſtance as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, upon Conviction thereof, by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before ſuch Juſtice of Peace as aforeſaid, forfeit the Sum of one Pound to the Owner or Owners of the ſaid inner Seyne-net or Nets, for and towards the Expence of replacing the ſaid outermoſt Seyne-net as aforeſaid.

When the Anchors of the outermoſt Seynes drive, the Owners of ſuch Seynes to replace the Seyne.

One Anchor to the Bunt of every Seyne.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Bunt or Middle of every Seyne-net in which Fiſh ſhall be incloſed ſhall be moored with one ſufficient Anchor at the leaſt, when ſuch Seyne ſhall be haled into her proper Birth, and there moored on the Sleeves or Sides as aforeſaid.

Seyne that is firſt moored to attend the mooring of every other Seyne.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Seyne-net with Fiſh incloſed therein ſhall be moored within any Cove or Birth, and it ſhall be neceſſary to moor any other Seyne-net or Nets in the ſaid Cove, the Owner or Owners or Hewer of the Seyne ſo firſt moored ſhall ſend out a Boat, manned with four Men at the leaſt, to attend the Mooring of ſuch other Seyne-net or Nets, to ſee that the Seyne firſt moored ſhall receive no Damage by the haling in or mooring ſuch other Seyne-net or Nets in the ſaid Cove; and in caſe the Owners of the Seyne firſt moored ſhall neglect to ſend out ſuch Boat, ſo manned as aforeſaid, the Owners of ſuch other Seyne-net or Nets ſhall not be anſwerable for any Damage to be done, or which ſhall happen by haling ſuch other Seyne-net or Nets into a proper Birth in the ſaid Cove and Mooring there.

Penalty for cutting off any Rope belonging to Seynes, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, either by Day or Night, wilfully and maliciouſly cut or caſt off, or cauſe to be cut or caſt off, any Warp-rope, Tow-rope, or Mooring-rope, of or belonging to any Seyne or Thwart-net in the Water, or ſhall wilfully and maliciouſly cut, break, or deſtroy, any ſuch Seyne or Thwart-net in the Water, or ſhall wilfully and maliciouſly cut, caſt off, or unbend, any Cable, Hawſer, or other Rope, either faſtened on Shore, or bent to any Anchor then uſed for mooring any Ship or Veſſel, which ſhall be lying in the Pier or Harbour of Saint Ives, for the Purpoſe of loading Fiſh, or any other Ship or Veſſel whatſoever which ſhall be lying in the ſaid Pier or Harbour, or ſhall wilfully cut, caſt off, or unbend, any Hawſer or Rope faſtened on Shore, or bent to an Anchor then uſed for mooring any Boat whatſoever lying within the ſaid Pier or Harbour; then, and in any of the ſaid Caſes, every Perſon ſo offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and tranſported to one of his Majeſty's Plantations Abroad, for ſeven Years, or ſhall be committed to Priſon for any Time not exceeding three Years, at the Diſcretion of the Judge or Court before whom ſuch Offender ſhall be tried; and any Indictment for ſuch Offence ſhall and may be enquired of, examined, tried, and determined, in any adjacent County, within that Part of Great Britain, in ſuch Manner and Form as if the Facts had been therein committed.

Proviſo, relating to Veſſels going into or out of Harbour.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to hinder or prevent any Perſon or Perſons on board any Boat, Ship, or Veſſel, coming into or going out of the ſaid Pier or Harbour of Saint Ives, from cutting or caſting off any Rope or Cable, where it will be neceſſary to be done for the Safety of any ſuch Boat, Ship, or Veſſel.

'XXVI. And whereas a great Number of Workmen, ſkilful in the ſeveral Trades and Manufactures 'of this Kingdom, and alſo many able Seamen and Mariners, finding themſelves unable to ſatisfy the 'Whole of their reſpective Debts, and dreading the Miſeries of a Gaol, have choſe to leave their Employments and Native Country, and have entered themſelves in Foreign Service: And whereas their 'Continuance abroad muſt be of great Prejudice to the Trade of this Kingdom; in order therefore to 'induce

Debtors who were beyond the Seas on Jan. 22, 1776, ſurrendering themſelves, may take the Benefit of this Act,

'induce and enable ſuch Perſons to return,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Debtor and Debtors, who was or were actually beyond the Seas, in Foreign Parts, on the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and did not go into ſuch Foreign Parts with the View or Intent to gain or have the Benefit of an Inſolvent Debtors Act, who ſhall return and ſurrender himſelf or themſelves, within fourteen Days next immediately after his or their landing in England, unto the Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of the Priſons of the King's Bench, Marſhalſea, or Fleet, or to the Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of the Priſon or Priſons of ſuch County, City, Town, Riding, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place, where ſuch Debtor or Debtors laſt dwelt, for the Space of ſix Months (which ſaid Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, is and are hereby required and impowered to receive and detain ſuch Debtor or Debtors, ſurrendering as aforeſaid, in order to their Diſcharge, as herein after mentioned), and who, from and immediately after ſuch Surrender, do continue in actual Cuſtody of ſuch Gaoler and Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, until the Time of his Diſcharge, ſhall be deemed a Priſoner or Priſoners within, and be, to all Intents and Purpoſes, intitled to the Benefit of this Act; and ſhall, upon due Proof of the ſaid Premiſes, by the Oath of ſuch Debtor or Debtors (not diſproved by any credible Witneſs), be diſcharged in the ſame Manner as if he, ſhe, or they, had been actually in Priſon on the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and continued therein as aforeſaid; ſubject nevertheleſs to the ſame Reſtrictions and Proviſions, and a Compliance with the like Terms, Conditions, and Qualifications, herein before impoſed upon the ſaid Priſoners actually in Cuſtody upon the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and alſo ſubject to the Terms and Proviſions relating to the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner, as aforeſaid; excepting only ſuch Particulars thereof as require the Name of a Priſoner to be inſerted in the Gaoler's or Keeper's Liſt, as aforeſaid, as relate to the Oaths of ſuch Gaoler or Keeper herein before appointed to be taken; which Particulars cannot poſſibly be applied to the Caſe of Perſons ſurrendering themſelves as aforeſaid; and alſo except the ſaid Oath herein before appointed to be taken by Priſoners in Cuſtody upon the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix; inſtead whereof, the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſurrendering ſhall take an Oath, in open Court, at ſome General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or ſome Adjournment thereof, of the County, City, Town, Riding, Diviſion, Place, or Liberty, in the Priſon of which any ſuch Fugitive or Debtor ſhall be held, after the Surrender of any ſuch Fugitive or Debtor, to the Effect following; which the ſaid Juſtices, authoriſed to put this Act in Execution, are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter in ſuch Manner as the Oaths herein before mentioned are to be adminiſtered:

upon the ſame Terms as other Priſoners;

except in certain Particulars.

Fugitive's Oath.

'I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Preſence of Almighty God, ſolemnly ſwear, proteſt, and declare, That I was actually, on the twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, beyond the Seas in Foreign Parts; videlicet, at and that I did, within fourteen Days next immediately after my landing, ſurrender myſelf to the Cuſtody of the Keeper of [as the Caſe may be]; and that I have ever ſince ſuch my Surrender continued a Priſoner in his Cuſtody; and that the Schedule now delivered, and by me ſubſcribed, doth contain, to the beſt of my Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief, a full, juſt, true, and perfect Account and Diſcovery of all the Real Eſtate, Goods, Effects, and other Perſonal Eſtate, in any-wiſe belonging to me; and alſo of all ſuch Debts as are to me owing, or to any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for me; and of all the Securities and Contracts whereby any Money now is, or will or may hereafter become payable, or whereby or wherefrom any Benefit or Advantage may accrue to me, or to my Uſe, or to any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for me; and the Names and Places of Abode of the ſeveral Perſons from whom ſuch Debts are due and owing; and of the Witneſſes that can prove ſuch Debts or Contracts [if any ſuch there be]; and that neither I, nor any Perſons in Truſt for me, is or are ſeiſed of any Real Eſtate, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, or Expectancy, or of any Perſonal Eſtate of any Kind whatſoever, other than what are in the ſaid Schedule contained; except my Wearing Apparel, and Bedding for myſelf and Family, my Working Tools, and neceſſary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, together with a Sum of Money not exceeding forty Shillings, and not exceeding in the Whole the Value of twenty Pounds; and that I have not, directly or indirectly, ſold, leſſened, or otherwiſe conveyed, diſpoſed of in Truſt, or concealed, all or any Part of my Real Eſtate, Money, Goods, Chattels, Stocks, Debts, Securities, Contracts, or Perſonal Eſtate whatſoever, whereby to ſecure the ſame, ſo as to receive or expect any Profit or Advantage therefrom to myſelf or Family, or with any View, Intent, or Deſign, to defraud or deceive any Creditor or Creditors, to whom I am indebted in any-wiſe howſoever, or prevent their recovering or attaining their reſpective Debts.

'So help me GOD.'

Fugitives arreſted, intending to ſurrender, intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

XXVII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That if any Fugitive intending to ſurrender to the Terms of this Act, ſhall, within the Space before mentioned of fourteen Days, be arreſted in any Suit or Action, which Cauſe of Action accrued before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, ſuch Fugitive giving Notice (as before directed) to any Juſtice of the Peace at the next General Quarter Seſſions, and in all other Reſpects complying with the Terms and Conditions of this Act, ſhall be intitled to the Benefit of the ſame; and every Sheriff, Bailiff, or Officer, Gaoler, or Keeper of a Priſon, in whoſe Cuſtody ſuch Fugitive ſhall be detained, ſhall conform him or themſelves to the Directions of this Act, in like Manner as before mentioned.

'XXVIII. And whereas a great Number of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers, in his Majeſty's Sea and Land Service, who, through unavoidable Misfortunes, have involved themſelves in Debt (and many of them, through Neceſſity, have taken up Money on Terms very diſadvantageous to themſelves, tending to haſten their Ruin), are now unable, though willing, to ſerve their King and Country, becauſe, to

'avoid the Diſgrace and Shame of a Priſon, they have taken Shelter in privileged Places, and cannot come 'forth without Danger of being immediately arreſted, or have been thrown into Priſon, without Hopes 'of being releaſed by any Diſcharge of their Debts, and are therefore become uſeleſs and a heavy Burthen, 'inſtead of being ſerviceable to the State: And whereas many of them are not under the Deſcription of 'thoſe Perſons who can take Benefit by the Proviſions of this Act, without ſome Extenſion thereof, 'yet are very proper Objects of ſuch Relief as is hereby intended to be given;' be it therefore enacted, That all and every Commiſſion or Warrant Officer or Officers, in his Majeſty's Sea or Land Service, now upon the full or half-pay Liſt, who ſhall, on or before the twenty-ſixth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, ſurrender himſelf or themſelves to the Gaoler or Keeper of any of his Majeſty's Priſons, in ſuch Manner as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors returning from Foreign Parts, who mean to claim the Benefit of this Act, and who ſhall, ſubſequent thereto, conform themſelves in all Reſpects to the like Terms and Conditions preſcribed to ſuch Fugitive Debtors (except as to ſo much of the Oath required to be taken by them, as declares that ſuch Debtors were in Foreign Parts on a certain Day, and did ſurrender within fourteen Days after their Return); inſtead whereof, every ſuch Debtor ſhall ſwear, that he did, on or before the twenty-ſixth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix [as the Caſe may be], ſurrender himſelf to the Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of [inſert the Name of the Priſon], and who ſhall, in all other Reſpects, take the ſame Oath as every ſuch Fugitive Debtor is required to do, ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Priſoner or Priſoners within the true Meaning of this Act, and be intitled to the Benefits thereof, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Any Commiſſion or Warrant Officer, who ſhall ſurrender himſelf, as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors, before June 26, 1776, ſhall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Priſon, or his Deputy or Deputies, ſhall, without juſt Cauſe, to be approved of by the Juſtices at ſome General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, refuſe or delay to bring any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners as aforeſaid to any ſuch General Quarter Seſſion, or ſome Adjournment thereof, in order to his or her Diſcharge; or ſhall neglect, refuſe, or deſignedly omit to inſert, in any ſuch Liſt, the Name or Names of any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners who was or were actually in Cuſtody in his or their reſpective Gaol or Priſon, on the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, or ſince; or ſhall neglect or refuſe to make out, fix up, or deliver, ſuch Liſts as aforeſaid; or if any ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall neglect or refuſe to take any of the ſaid Oaths before mentioned, and hereby required to be taken by him; or ſhall, upon any Account or Pretence whatſoever, take or receive more than the ſaid Sum of one Shilling herein before allowed for his or her Attendance in order to be diſcharged of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners as aforeſaid; or ſhall detain any ſuch Priſoner after he or ſhe ſhall be diſcharged as aforeſaid; or if the Printer of the London Gazette, or other Newſpaper, as aforeſaid, ſhall wilfully refuſe or neglect to inſert therein the Notice by this Act directed to be given, on reaſonable Requeſt to him made for that Purpoſe, and Tender of the Money hereby directed to be paid; or ſhall take or receive any Fee or Gratuity more than Twopence as aforeſaid for doing thereof; every ſuch Gaoler and Keeper of ſuch Priſon or Priſons, his Deputy or Deputies, and every ſuch Printer as aforeſaid, ſhall reſpectively forfeit and pay to each Priſoner, in any ſuch Caſe injured, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; which ſhall and may be recovered, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Gaoler, or Printer of the Gazette, &c. not complying with the Regulations of this Act, to forfeit 100 l. for each Offence, with Treble Coſts.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper or Keepers, or any deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Priſon, ſhall, in taking of the afore-mentioned Oaths, forſwear or perjure himſelf, and ſhall thereof be lawfully convicted, ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of ſuch Priſon or Priſons (over and above ſuch Penalties as may be inflicted on Perſons convicted of Perjury), ſhall, upon every ſuch Conviction, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with full Coſts, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Action of Debt, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, by and in the Name of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his and their Executors and Adminiſtrators, to whom any Aſſignment or Conveyance, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be made, of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners; and if no ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſhall be living, then in the Name or Names of any other Creditor or Creditors who ſhall ſue for the ſaid Penalties; to be applied, one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety towards Satisfaction of the Debts of ſuch his Creditor or Creditors.

Gaoler convicted of Perjury, to forfeit 500 l. with full Coſts, &c.

Application of the Penalty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, ſhall delay or refuſe to give every or any ſuch Priſoner ſo diſcharged as aforeſaid, within fourteen Days after his or her Diſcharge, a Copy of the Order of his or her Diſcharge, on the Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence; or ſhall take more than the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for ſuch Copy; or ſhall take more than one Shilling for an Aſſignment or Conveyance of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate or Effects; every ſuch Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, who ſhall ſo offend, and who ſhall be convicted at any ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, of any ſuch Offence, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay to every ſuch Priſoner the Sum of twenty Pounds, as the Juſtices of the Peace, at any ſuch General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, ſhall order; and who are hereby impowered to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of any ſuch Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, ſo offending.

Clerk of the Peace refuſing a Priſoner a Copy of his Diſcharge, or taking exorbitant Fees, ſhall forfeit 20 l. to the Priſoner.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Priſoner as aforeſaid, or any other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall take the Benefit of this Act, ſhall forſwear or perjure himſelf, herſelf, Priſoner, &c. convicted of Perjury, to ſuffer as a Felon.

ſelf, or themſelves, in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and ſhall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, ſhall be adjudged a Felon, and ſuffer as ſuch, without Benefit of Clergy.

Perſons diſcharged by this Act, not liable to Impriſonment for Debts, &c. contracted before Jan. 22, 1776:

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon to be diſcharged by this Act ſhall, at any Time hereafter, be impriſoned by reaſon of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Damages, Contempts, Coſts, Sum or Sums of Money, contracted, incurred, occaſioned, owing, or growing due, before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix; but that upon every Arreſt upon every Judgment, or ſuch Decree, or for ſuch Debts, Damages, Contempts, Coſts, Sum and Sums of Money, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Proceſs iſſued, upon ſhewing the Copy of the Order of ſuch Priſoner's Diſcharge or Diſcharges, to releaſe and diſcharge out of Cuſtody ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners as aforeſaid; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch Suit or Suits, to pay ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners the Coſts he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have incurred on ſuch Occaſion, or ſo much thereof as to ſuch Judge ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and every ſuch Judge is hereby impowered ſo to do on ſuch Priſoner's cauſing a Common Appearance to be entered for him in every ſuch Action and Suit.

But no Priſoner to be diſcharged of Debts ſubſequent thereto.

'XXXIV. And whereas, under former Acts of this Kind, Doubts have ariſen what was to be done 'with ſuch Priſoners who applied at any Seſſion to be diſcharged, who owed and ſtood charged with Debts, 'as well previous as ſubſequent to the Day limited by the reſpective Acts; to remedy which,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be diſcharged of any Debts ſubſequent to the twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix; and if it ſhall appear to the Juſtices, in any Seſſion or Adjournment, that any Priſoner or Priſoners, then applying to them to be diſcharged, ſhall ſtand charged as well with Debts previous to as ſubſequent to the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, that in ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices to diſcharge him or her of all Debts previous to the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and to remand him or her back to the Cuſtody of the Keeper of the Priſon from whence he or ſhe was brought, for all Debts with which he or ſhe ſtands charged with in his Cuſtody, ſubſequent to the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix.

Juſtices, &c. may plead this Act to any Action brought againſt them, and recover Treble Coſts.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action of Eſcape, or any Suit or Action, be brought againſt any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper of any Priſon, for performing their Office, in purſuance of this Act, they may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, or Verdict paſs againſt him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant ſhall have Treble Coſts.

Perſons diſcharged may plead generally, &c. to all Actions or Judgments brought againſt them before Jan. 22, 1776, &c.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Scire facias, or Action of Debt, or upon Judgment, ſhall be brought againſt any Priſoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, upon any Judgment obtained againſt any ſuch Priſoner, or on any Statute or Recognizance acknowledged by him or her, before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, with reſpect to Priſoners in actual Cuſtody, or with reſpect to Debtors beyond the Seas, as aforeſaid, upon the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch Priſoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, to plead generally that ſuch Priſoner was actually a Priſoner in ſuch Priſon at ſuch a Perſon's Suit, or was or were beyond the Seas in Foreign Parts on the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and was or were duly diſcharged according to this Act, at the General Quarter Seſſion, or Adjournment thereof, held at ſuch Time and Place, for ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, Liberty, City, Town, or Place (as his, her, or their Caſe is), without pleading any Matter ſpecially; and in caſe any other Suit or Action ſhall be commenced againſt him, her, or them, for any other Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, to plead in Diſcharge of his or her Perſon from Execution (over and above ſuch Matters as aforeſaid), that ſuch Debt or Sum of Money (as the Caſe ſhall happen) was contracted or due before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, without pleading any other Matter eſpecially; whereto the Plaintiff ſhall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforeſaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may ſhew the ſaid Defendant not to be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly diſcharged according to it, in the ſame Manner as the Plaintiff might have replied, in caſe the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Diſcharge, by virtue of this Act, ſpecially; and if the Plaintiff be nonſuited, diſcontinue his Action, or Verdict paſs againſt him, or Judgment on Demurrer, the Defendant to have Treble Coſts.

and in other Suits, may plead in Diſcharge of their Perſons from Execution.

Plaintiff may reply generally, &c.

but if nonſuited, to pay Treble Coſts.

Attornies or Servants embezzling Money, &c. excluded the Benefit of this Act.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to releaſe or diſcharge any Attorney at Law, or Solicitor, or any other Perſon or Perſons acting or pretending to act as ſuch, with regard to any Debt with which he or they ſhall ſtand charged for any Money, or other Effects, recovered and received by him or them, for the Uſe of any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon or Perſons acting as ſuch, embezzled, concealed, or converted, to his or their own Uſe; or to releaſe or diſcharge any Servant or Agent, or any Perſon or Perſons employed or intruſted as ſuch, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſtand charged, for and on account of any Money, Goods, or other Effects, received or poſſeſſed by him, her, or them, for the Uſe, and on account of his, her, or their Maſter or Maſters, or Employers, and by ſuch Servant or Agent embezzled, concealed, or converted to his, her, or their own Uſe; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

'XXXVIII. And whereas many evil-diſpoſed Perſons, to ſupport their profligate Way of Life, have, 'by various ſubtle Stratagems, Threats, and Devices, fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, 'Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Securities for 'Money,

'Money, to the great Injury of induſtrious Families, and to the manifeſt Prejudice of Trade and Credit;' be it enacted, That no Priſoner, who knowingly and deſignedly, by falſe Pretence or Pretences, ſhall have obtained from any Perſon or Perſons, Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Securities for Money, ſhall have or receive any Benefit or Diſcharge by or under this Act; but the Juſtices, at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter, made to their Satisfaction, ſhall remand ſuch Priſoner to the Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Priſon from whence he or ſhe ſhall have been brought, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons who, by falſe Pretences, have obtained Money, Goods, &c. excluded the Benefit of this Act.

'XXXIX. And whereas many Debtors have, with a view to defraud their Creditors, ſold, transferred, 'conveyed, or aſſigned their Eſtate and Effects to ſome Perſon or Perſons, ſubſequent to their being in 'Cuſtody of Law, or impriſoned under ſome Proceſs for Debt: And whereas ſuch Sale, Transfer, Con-'veyance, or Aſſignment, has been frequently made, to the infinite Prejudice of the fair and honeſt 'Creditor, though ſufficient Proof could not be obtained to convict the Party of a fraudulent Deſign;' be it enacted, That whenever it ſhall be proved by one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to the Satisfaction of the Court, to which any Priſoner ſhall be brought up, in order to obtain his or her Diſcharge, that ſuch Priſoner has ſold, transferred, conveyed, or aſſigned, to any Perſon or Perſons, all or any Part of his Eſtate or Effects, ſubſequent to the Time of his Impriſonment, or of his being in Cuſtody of Law, without juſt Cauſe for ſo doing, to be allowed by the Juſtices preſiding in ſuch Court as aforeſaid; every ſuch Priſoner ſhall loſe all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwiſe claimed under the Authority of this Act, and ſhall not be intitled to his or her Diſcharge.

Any Perſon having ſold or aſſigned any Part of his Eſtate or Effects, after being in Cuſtody, with Deſign to defraud his Creditors, ſhall loſe the Benefit of this Act.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Priſon ſhall, and is hereby required to ſuffer, in the Day-time, any Perſon or Perſons deſiring the ſame, to ſee and ſpeak, in the Lodge, or ſome convenient Room of the ſaid Priſon, with any Priſoner or Priſoners, whoſe Names are inſerted in the afore-mentioned Liſt or Liſts, or London Gazette, or other Newſpaper, or any of them, or any Perſons ſurrendering themſelves purſuant to this Act; and alſo ſee, in the true and genuine Books of the ſaid Priſon, the Entries made of the Name or Names of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, together with the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons at whoſe Suit or Suits he, ſhe, or they, are detained: And if any ſuch Gaoler or Keeper ſhall neglect or refuſe to comply with what is here above required, every ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, who ſhall ſo offend in the Premiſes, ſhall forfeit and pay, to the Perſon ſo refuſed and aggrieved, the Sum of forty Pounds; to be recovered, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſed and aggrieved.

Gaoler to permit the ſpeaking in private to Priſoners, whoſe Names are inſerted in the Liſt, or Gazette, &c. and the examining original Books of Entries, &c. on Penalty of 40 l. with Coſts of Suit.

'XLI. And whereas ſeveral Perſons, who have taken the Benefit of Acts of Inſolvency, from a Diffi-'culty of obtaining a new Credit to ſet themſelves up in their uſual Trades and Occupations, (as their 'future Effects have been made liable to their Debts previous thereto) have gone Abroad for the better 'Maintenance of themſelves and Families, carrying the Arts and Manufactures of this Country to our 'Enemies, or Rivals in Trade:' In order to prevent ſuch Evil for the future, be it enacted, That the future real Eſtates, as well Freehold and Copyhold, as cuſtomary Copyhold, or Money in the Funds, or lent upon real Security only, of every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, which, after the Time of his, her, or their, total Surrender of his, her, or their Eſtates and Effects, under ſuch Acts, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall or may be ſeiſed of, in his, her, or their own Right or Uſe, by Grant, Demiſe, or Purchaſe, ſhall remain and be liable to his, her, and their reſpective Creditors, as before the making of this Act; and any Creditor or Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, may, at any Time hereafter, ſue out Execution, Extents, or other Proceſs, againſt ſuch real Eſtate or Money in the Funds as aforeſaid, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, on any Judgment at the Time of ſuch Diſcharge recovered, or Statute-ſtaple, or Recognizance acknowledged by, or Decree obtained againſt, any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, but not againſt his, her, or their Perſon, or his, her, or their perſonal Eſtate or Effects, except Money in the Funds obtained or accrued ſince ſuch Time of ſuch Diſcharge, other than as aforeſaid.

Priſoners future Eſtates, or Money in the Funds, notwithſtanding their perſonal Diſcharge, liable to Creditors;

Gaoler making falſe Entries in Priſon Book or Liſt, to forfeit 500 l. with Treble Coſts.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or reputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Priſon or Priſons, ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any falſe Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Priſon or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or ſhall prepare or keep, or cauſe to be prepared or kept, any falſe Book or Books, in order for any falſe or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein; or ſhall inſert in any Liſt, to be delivered in as aforeſaid, the Name or Names of any Perſon or Perſons who was not a Priſoner or Priſoners in actual Cuſtody in any ſuch Gaol or Priſon upon the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, or ſhall not have ever ſince remained in ſuch actual Cuſtody (except as in the Oath of any ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall be excepted), every ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall, over and above the Penalties which he ſhall be liable to for every ſuch Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by and in the Name, and for the Uſe, of any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be prejudiced by any Entry, or ſuch falſe Entries; which Penalties ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Priſoner refuſing to declare the Abode, &c. of the Perſon at whoſe Suit he is detained, &c. to be excluded the Benefit of this Act.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Priſoner, being thereunto required by any Creditor, ſhall refuſe to diſcover and declare the Trade or Occupation, and Habitation, or laſt Place of Abode, of the Perſon or Perſons at whoſe Suit he or ſhe is detained or charged in Cuſtody; or being called for and deſired, by any Creditor or Creditors, to come to the Lodge of the Priſon in which any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be confined, without ſome reaſonable Cauſe being made appear to the contrary; every ſuch Priſoner, upon Proof being made thereof before the Juſtices at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforeſaid, ſhall not have or receive any Benefit or Diſcharge by or under this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Juſtices may aſſemble at or near any County Gaol, and hold a Seſſion there for Diſcharge of Priſoners.

'XLVI. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the reſpective Counties of 'York, Lincoln, Lancaſter, and Durham, which ſaid Counties are each of them divided into ſeveral Ridings 'or Diviſions, all which have ſeveral Commiſſions of the Peace; and if the Gaolers of thoſe Gaols be 'obliged to carry the Debtors, Priſoners therein, to the Quarter Seſſion of each Riding or Diviſion, the 'ſame will be a very great Charge, not only to ſuch Gaolers, but alſo to the Priſoners in thoſe large Coun-'ties;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for two or more Juſtices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Diviſions in the reſpective Counties (or any other County or Counties where the Priſons are at a Diſtance from the Place where the Seſſions are held), at the Common or County Gaol thereof reſpectively, or at ſome convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to aſſemble and meet, and to hold Seſſion there, by Adjournment from their reſpective Quarter Seſſion, from Time to Time, for the Diſcharge of the reſpective Priſoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Juſtices for the County of Surrey may aſſemble at the Town-hall of Southwark for adminiſtering Oaths, &c.

'XLVII. And whereas the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which 'ſhall happen after the paſſing of this Act, may be in the County, and upwards of twenty Miles from any 'of the ſaid Priſons;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtices as ſhall be aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the paſſing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the ſaid Seſſion to the Town-hall in the Borough of Southwark, for the Purpoſe of adminiſtering the Oaths required to be taken and ſubſcribed by this Act, by the ſeveral Gaolers within the ſaid County wherein any Priſoner or Priſoners are confined, and to the diſcharging ſuch reſpective Priſoner or Priſoners confined therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Priſoners who are kept in Cuſtody for Payment of Fees, &c. to be diſcharged.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Debtors and others, who were in Priſon on or before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, or ſince, in any of the Gaols of this Kingdom, and now remain there for not paying their Fees, Rents, or other Demands due, or claimed as due, to the Keeper or Gaoler of any Priſon reſpectively, or to any other Officer of ſuch Priſon, and upon no other Account, ſhall be diſcharged therefrom, he, ſhe, or they, taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Priſoners.

This Act not to extend to Debtors to the Crown;

XLIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to diſcharge any Perſon out of Priſon, ſeeking his or her Diſcharge under this Act, with reſpect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or ſhe ſhall ſtand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Perſon proſecuted for any Offence committed againſt any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majeſty's Revenues of Cuſtoms, Exciſe, or Salt Duties, or either of them.

nor to Priſoners who owe more than 1000 l. to one Perſon, unleſs ſuch Creditor conſent: Exception.

L. Provided alſo, That this Act ſhall not extend to diſcharge any Perſon out of Priſon, ſeeking his or her Diſcharge under this Act, who ſhall be charged by any Body Politic or Corporate, or by any one Perſon, on or before the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, in any Sum exceeding the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, beſides Intereſt and Coſts, and whoſe Diſcharge ſhall be in Court oppoſed by ſuch Body Politic or Corporate, or one Perſon (except ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have been bound in Security for any other Perſon or Perſons to a larger Amount, and it ſhall appear, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo bound, or giving, or joining in, ſuch Security, hath or have not received or applied to his, her, or their own proper and ſeparate Uſe or or Benefit, any Part of the Sum or Sums of Money ſo due and owing as aforeſaid): And if any ſuch Body Politic or Corporate, Creditor or Creditors, to whom a Sum exceeding one thouſand Pounds ſhall be owing, ſhall oppoſe the Diſcharge of ſuch Priſoner (except as aforeſaid), and ſhall inſiſt that ſuch Priſoner be continued in Gaol; that then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Body Politic or Corporate, or Creditor or Creditors, oppoſing the ſaid Priſoner's Diſcharge as aforeſaid, ſhall at his, her, or their proper Coſts and Charges, allow and pay, in the whole, ſuch a weekly Maintenance to the ſaid Priſoner, not exceeding four Shillings, nor leſs than three Shillings and ſix Pence per Week, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Juſtices, in their General Quarter Seſſion, or Adjournment thereof, ſhall order; and, upon Non-payment of the ſame for the Space of two Weeks, the ſaid Priſoner, upon Application to the ſaid Juſtices in their General Quarter Seſſion, held as aforeſaid, ſhall be diſcharged, purſuant to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Creditor oppoſing Priſoner's Diſcharge to allow him 3 s. 6 d. per Week; and on Non-payment for two Weeks, Priſoner to be diſcharged.

'LI. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble in 'attending every Seſſion and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppoſe the Diſ-'charge of Priſoners clearly excluded from any Benefit under the ſaid reſpective Acts, but who, after hav-'ing been before one Seſſion heard, and refuſed a Diſcharge, to haraſs their Creditors, conſtantly gave 'freſh Notices for each ſubſequent Seſſion and Adjournment of their intended Application to be diſcharged;' to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all caſes whatever, the Determination of the Juſtices in Seſſion or Adjournment ſhall be final to all Intents and Purpoſes, unleſs the Priſoner ſhall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections, for which they refuſed his Diſcharge; and, that the ſame may be clear and certain, the Juſtices are hereby required to ſtate the Objections why ſuch Priſoner's Diſcharge is refuſed by them; and, in all Caſes whatever, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices, at any ſubſequent Seſſion or Adjournment, upon Application from the Priſoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them, by two or more credible Witneſſes (which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice, ſerved, at leaſt ten Days previous to ſuch Application, on the Creditor or Creditors who before oppoſed his Diſcharge, and of Notice likewiſe inſerted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order ſuch Priſoner to be brought before them, and, if they ſhall then be of Opinion the ſaid Priſoner is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to order him to be diſcharged, he taking the Oath, and in all other Reſpects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Determination of Juſtices to be final with reſpect to the Retention of any Priſoner; unleſs the Priſoner get rid of the Objections for which they refuſed his Diſcharge.

Juſtices, on Proof by two Witneſſes of Objections being removed, &c. may diſcharge ſuch Priſoner.

LII. Provided always, That every Fugitive or Fugitives, intitled, or to be intitled, to the Benefit of this Act, ſhall obtain their reſpective Diſcharges on or before the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or ſhall be excluded from all Benefit of this Act.

No Fugitive to obtain a Diſcharge after Aug. 1, 1778.

'LIII. And whereas it may happen that ſeveral Perſons, who may claim and be intitled to the Benefit 'of this Act, are ſeiſed of an Eſtate Tail, in ſome Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Heredi-'taments, which Entail, with the Remainders thereupon expectant, they have, by Law, Power to defeat 'and bar, either by levying a Fine or Fines, ſuffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries, or by 'Surrender or Surrenders thereof, whereby ſuch Perſon or Perſons' ſaid Freehold or Copyhold Lands, 'Tenements, or Hereditaments, would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up, ac-'cording to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſeiſed as aforeſaid, and who ſhall be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, ſhall, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever in Law, be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be ſeiſed of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in Fee: Provided the ſame ſhall be delivered up to the Creditor or Creditors of every ſuch Priſoner, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Perſon or Perſons had actually levied a Fine, ſuffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, or made a Surrender or Surrenders thereof, and thereby had become ſeiſed in Fee; any Law, or Conſtruction of Law, to the contrary thereof, in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons ſeiſed of an Eſtate Tail, claiming the Benefit of this Act, are to deliver up the ſame to Creditors.

'LIV. And whereas many Perſons who may take the Benefit of this Act, have been great Dealers, or 'otherwiſe engaged in large Tranſactions, whereby they may be intitled to ſundry and great Debts and 'Demands, of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of 'Eſtates, ſubject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, and other Incumbrances, or to Reverſions, Re-'mainders, or other contingent Eſtates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Truſts or 'Intereſts in Eſtates, both Real and Perſonal, which may not be ſufficiently deſcribed or diſcovered, in 'the Schedule, or Inventory, before directed to be delivered in, upon Oath, as aforeſaid, or which may 'want his Aid or Aſſiſtance to adjuſt, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Aſſignees of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners who ſhall obtain his, her, or their Diſcharge, in purſuance of this Act, or any other Perſon or Perſons, duly authoriſed by them for that Purpoſe, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be then reſiding, thereby deſiring that ſuch Perſon or Perſons may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects; whereupon ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſend for, or call before them, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by ſuch Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they ſhall think fit; and, upon ſuch Perſon's appearing, ſhall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwiſe, as to ſuch Matters and Things, as ſuch Aſſignee ſhall deſire, relating to the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; and if any Perſon or Perſons (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of ſuch reaſonable Charges as ſuch Juſtices ſhall judge ſufficient) ſhall neglect or refuſe to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuſe, to be made known to ſuch Juſtices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or to anſwer to all ſuch Queſtions as by ſuch Juſtices ſhall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Diſcovery of his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects, ſo veſted, or intended to be veſted, in ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in ſuch Aſſignees as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Juſtices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall, within twelve Months after the Diſcharge of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, voluntarily come in and make a Diſcovery of any Part of ſuch Debtor or Debtors Real or Perſonal Eſtate, as ſhall not be compriſed in ſuch Schedule as aforeſaid, before any Juſtices aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, out of the Net Produce of ſuch Debtor or Debtors Eſtate which ſhall be recovered on ſuch Diſcovery, and which ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo diſcovering the ſame, by the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate and Effects.

Diſcharge obtained fraudulently, void.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithſtanding the Diſcharge of any Priſoner or Priſoners by virtue of this Act, if it ſhall hereafter appear the ſame was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any ſuch Priſoner was not true; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be void, and of none Effect.

Perſons concealing any Eſtate or Effects of the Priſoner, forfeit 100 l. and Doub'e Value, with Treble Coſts of Suit.

An Act for granting further Time for allowing the Drawback upon the Exportation of Muſlins and Callicoes, imported by the Eaſt India Company in the Years one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four; for allowing further Time to the ſaid Company to expoſe to Sale ſuch Bohea and Singlo Teas and Coffee as remained unſold on the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix; and alſo ſuch Bohea Teas as ſhall be imported on or before a certain Time; and for allowing the Drawbacks on the Exportation of ſuch Teas and Coffee; and for granting further Time for allowing the Drawback on the Exportation of Coffee imported in the Ship Shrewſbury, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS there are great Quantities of Muſlins and White Callicoes remaining in this King'dom, which were imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt
'Indies, in the Years one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ſeventy-four, and which, by reaſon of the Interruption given to Trade by the Rebellion and Diſturb-
'ances ſubſiſting in ſeveral of the Britiſh Colonies in North America, the Proprietors of ſuch Goods may 'not be able to export within the Term of three Years from the Importation thereof, being the Time
'limited by Law to intitle them to receive the Drawback of the Duties thereon, and it is reaſonable and 'neceſſary that ſome further Time ſhould be granted for the Exportation of ſuch Goods:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for all Muſlins and White Callicoes which were imported by the ſaid United Company into this Kingdom, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and which ſhall be exported from hence before the thirtieth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; and for all Muſlins and White Callicoes imported into this Kingdom by the ſaid United Company in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, which ſhall be exported from hence before the thirtieth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; whether ſuch Muſlins or Callicoes ſhall have been printed, painted, ſtained, or dyed, in this Kingdom or not, the Exporter or Exporters of ſuch Goods ſhall be allowed and paid the ſame Drawbacks, under the like Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as ſuch Exporter or Exporters would be intitled and liable to, in caſe ſuch Goods had been exported within the Term of three Years from the Importation thereof, any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Term of three Years extended to five, in relation to the exporting of Muſlins and White Callicoes, &c.

Preamble.

'II. And whereas, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in Force for granting, continuing, and better
'ſecuring the Duties payable ad valorem upon unrated Eaſt India Goods, and for aſcertaining the Va'lues thereof, according to which ſuch Duties ſhall be paid, the Importer or Importers thereof are to give 'Security by Bond for Payment of the ſaid Duties according to the real Values of the ſaid Goods, to be
'aſcertained according to the reſpective Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made (except Coffee), as ſoon
'as the ſaid Goods ſhall be ſold, and alſo for expoſing the ſaid Goods to Sale openly and fairly, by Way of 'Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Term of three Years after the 'Importation thereof: And whereas by an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent
'Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting further Time to the United Company of Merchants of England
'trading to the Eaſt Indies, to expoſe to Sale the Singlo and Bohea Teas remaining in their Warehouſes unſold on
'the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, and for allowing the Drawbacks on the 'Exportation of ſuch Teas, it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That for ſuch of the ſaid Bohea Teas
'as were then imported, and which remained unſold on the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven
'hundred and ſeventy-four, the ſaid United Company might, at any Time within the Space of four 'Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, expoſe ſuch Teas to Sale; and that after ſuch
'Sale or Sales there ſhould be allowed the like Diſcounts, on Payment of the Duties on ſuch Teas, as if
'the ſame had been expoſed to Sale within the Term of three Years before mentioned, or any other Time
'theretofore limited by Law: And whereas a great Part of the ſaid Bohea Tea, imported by the ſaid
'United Company, and remaining in their Warehouſes unſold on the ſaid fifth Day of April one thou-
'ſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, yet remains unſold; and over and beſides ſuch Bohea Tea, the 'ſaid Company have ſince that Time imported a further conſiderable Quantity of Bohea Tea, which remain'ed in their Warehouſes unſold on the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, and
'they expect to import and receive, before the thirty-firſt Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred
'and ſeventy-ſix, a further conſiderable Quantity of Bohea Tea in ſundry Ships now coming Home from 'China; and the ſaid Company had alſo in their Warehouſes unſold, on the ſaid fifth Day of April one
'thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, a great Quantity of Singlo Teas and Coffee, and by reaſon of
'the Interruption given to Trade by the Diſturbances in ſeveral of the Britiſh Colonies in America, the 'ſaid Quantity of Bohea Tea, imported before the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred
'and ſeventy-four, and remaining unſold on the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred
'and ſeventy-ſix, cannot be expected to be ſold by the ſaid Company within the Term of four Years al'lowed for that Purpoſe by the ſaid Act of the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty; nor 'can it be expected that the ſaid other Bohea Teas herein before mentioned, the ſaid Singlo Teas, and
'Coffee, ſhould be ſold by the ſaid Company within the Term of three Years, to be computed from the 'reſpective Times of the Importation of ſuch Teas and Coffee, and it is neceſſary that ſome further Time
'ſhould be granted to the ſaid Company to put their ſaid Teas and Coffee up to Sale;' be it therefore enacted by Recital of an Act 14 Geo. III.

by the Authority aforeſaid, That as well for ſuch of the ſaid Bohea Teas, Singlo Teas, and Coffee, as remained unſold on the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, as alſo for ſuch Bohea Teas as hereafter ſhall be imported at any Time or Times on or before the thirty-firſt Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſix, the ſaid United Company may, at any Time within the Space of five Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, expoſe ſuch reſpective Teas and Coffee to Sale, and after ſuch Sale or Sales there ſhall be allowed the like Diſcounts, on Payments of the reſpective Duties on ſuch Teas and Coffee, as if the ſame had been expoſed to Sale within the Term of three Years, or any other Time heretofore limited by Law, any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

East India Company to be allowed uſual Diſcounts on the Sale of all Teas and Coffee, within five Years after the Importation thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, for and during the ſaid Term of five Years, to be computed as aforeſaid, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all the ſaid Teas and Coffee, which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandiſe to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, ſuch and the ſame Drawbacks or Allowances, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as ſuch Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to in caſe ſuch Teas and Coffee had been exported within the Term of three Years from the reſpective Times of the Importation thereof; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Term of three Years extended to five, in relation to the Drawback on exporting Teas and Coffee to Ireland and America.

'IV. And whereas, by reaſon of the ſaid Interruption to Trade, a great Part of the Coffee imported 'by the ſaid United Company in the Ship Shrewſbury, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ſeventy-three, and which hath been ſold by the ſaid United Company, yet remains uncleared in their 'Warehouſes, belonging to the Buyers thereof, and the ſame cannot be exported within three Years after 'the Importation thereof,' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Coffee, imported by the ſaid Ship Shrewſbury, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and now remaining uncleared in the ſaid Company's Warehouſes, ſhall be exported at any Time within five Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for the ſame, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, ſuch and the ſame Drawbacks or Allowances, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as ſuch Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to in caſe ſuch Coffee had been exported within the Term of three Years from the Importation thereof; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The ſame Time allowed for exporting Coffee, brought by the Shrewſbury, in 1773, and yet remaining in the Company's Warehouſes.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, ſhall at any Time neglect to keep the Market ſupplied with a ſufficient Quantity of Tea at reaſonable Prices, to anſwer the Conſumption thereof in Great Britain, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three or more of them, or for the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, to grant Licences to any other Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, to import into Great Britain, from any Parts of Europe, in ſuch and the like Manner, and ſubject to ſuch Duties, and under ſuch Reſtrictions and Limitations, and upon ſuch Notices, and with ſuch Licences, as are by any Act or Acts now in Force preſcribed and directed with reſpect to Tea to be imported from any Parts of Europe by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

In caſe the Company neglect to ſupply the Home Market with Tea, at reaſonable Prices, Commiſſioners of the Treaſury may grant Licenſes to any Perſons to import the ſame.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing a Houſe or Houſes of Induſtry in the Iſle of Wight, for the Reception, Maintenance, and Employment, of the Poor belonging to the ſeveral Pariſhes and Places within the ſaid Iſland, all and every the Perſon and Perſons qualified as therein is mentioned were incorporated, by the Name of The Guardians of the Poor within the Iſle of Wight; and the ſaid Guardians were thereby required to meet at a certain Time and Place therein mentioned, and being ſo aſſembled, to proceed in the Manner therein directed, by Way of Ballot, to the Choice of twenty-four of the Guardians, which twenty-four Perſons ſo choſen ſhould be called Directors of the Poor within the Iſle of Wight: And whereas it was thereby enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful to and for the ſaid Directors (until the acting Guardians therein directed to be choſen ſhould be choſen) and for the ſaid Directors and acting Guardians (after the ſaid acting Guardians ſhould be choſen) from Time to Time, to borrow any Sum or Sums for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of twelve thouſand Pounds, at an Intereſt not exceeding four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and to aſſign over, in the Manner therein mentioned, all or any Part of the Poor's Rates, to be collected within the ſaid Iſle of Wight in purſuance of the ſaid Act, as a Security for the Repayment of the Principal and Intereſt of the Money ſo to be borrowed: And, in order that the Sum to be borrowed for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act might be the leſs burthenſome, it was enacted, That the ſeveral Workhouſes then belonging to the ſeveral and reſpective Pariſhes in the Iſle of Wight aforeſaid, together with the Lands thereunto belonging, ſhould be veſted, and the ſame were thereby veſted, in Sir John Barrington of Swainſton in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Baronet, Sir Richard Worſley of Appuldurcombe in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Baroner, and Sir William Oglander of Nunwell in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Baronet, and their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, upon Truſt, that they the ſaid Sir John Barrington, Sir Richard Worſley, and Sir William Oglander, and their Heirs, ſhould ſell and convey the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Houſes and Lands to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhould be willing to purchaſe the ſame, and ſhould pay the Monies ariſing by ſuch Sale or Sales into the Hands of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers of the ſaid Corporation, to be applied for defraying the Expences of obtaining and other the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act; moſt of which ſaid ſeveral Houſes and Lands have been ſince ſold and conveyed accordingly: And by the ſaid Act his Majeſty was enabled to make a Grant, under the Exchequer Seal, of ſuch Part or Portion of the Foreſt of Parkhurſt, in the ſaid Iſle of Wight, (of which Foreſt his ſaid Majeſty is in the ſaid Act mentioned to be ſeiſed in Right of his Crown) as his

' ſaid

'ſaid Majeſty's Governor of the Iſle of Wight for the Time being, Sir John Barrington of Swainſton in the 'ſaid Iſle of Wight Baronet, Sir William Oglander of Nunwell in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Baronet, James 'Worſley of Stenbury in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Eſquire, Henry Roberts of Standen in the ſaid Iſle of Wight 'Eſquire, and the Reverend Leonard Troughear Holmes of Weſtover in the ſaid Iſle of Wight Clerk, or the 'Survivors of them, or any three or more of them, (of which Number the Governor for the Time being 'to be one) ſhould, within ſix Months from the paſſing of the ſaid Act, ſet out and allot for the Purpoſes 'of the ſaid Act not exceeding eighty Acres, (ſuch Grant to be made to the Guardians of the Poor 'within the Iſle of Wight, incorporated by the ſaid Act, for ſuch Time and Term of Years as his Ma-'jeſty ſhould think proper, notwithſtanding the Limitations of the Civil Liſt Act, made in the firſt Year 'of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne) and ſubject to ſuch Rents and Reſervations, and under 'ſuch Clauſes and Conditions, as are uſually reſerved and contained in like Caſes; and the Lands ſo to 'be granted ſhould be held by the ſaid Guardians, and their Succeſſors, in ſuch Manner, and to and for 'ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes, as from Time to Time, ſhould ſeem moſt proper and convenient 'for effecting and accommodating the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act: And whereas, by Letters Patent under 'the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date the twenty-firſt Day of March one thouſand ſeven hun-'dred and ſeventy-two, his ſaid Majeſty did demiſe, grant, and to farm let, unto the Guardians of the 'Poor within the Iſle of Wight, for the Time being, and their Succeſſors, all that Piece or Parcel of 'Land (Part of the Foreſt of Parkhurſt, in the Iſle of Wight, in the County of Southampton) ſituate, lying, 'and being, on the eaſt End of the ſaid Foreſt, and containing, by Eſtimation, eighty Acres of Ground, 'Statute Meaſure; bounded on the Eaſt by a Part of a certain Farm there, called Dodner Farm, and by 'Part of a certain other Farm there, called Saint Croſs Farm; on the Weſt by a certain High Road or 'Way, leading from the Town of Newport, through the ſaid Foreſt, to Weſt Cowes; on the North by 'other Part of the ſaid Foreſt, commonly called or known by the Name of Werrow Common; and on the 'South by other Part of the ſaid Foreſt; together with all Ways, Paſſages, Waters, Watercourſes, Pro-'fits, Commodities, Advantages, Hereditaments, and Appurtenances whatſoever, to the ſaid Piece or 'Parcel of Ground belonging or in anywiſe appertaining (except as in the ſaid recited Letters Patent is 'excepted); which ſaid Piece or Parcel of Ground, being of an irregular Form, is more particularly de-'ſcribed in a Plan thereof remaining in the Office of his Majeſty's Surveyor General; to have, hold, and 'enjoy, the ſaid Piece or Parcel of Land by the ſaid Letters Patent granted and demiſed, with their and 'every of their Appurtenances (except as therein is excepted) unto the ſaid Guardians and their Suc-'ceſſors, for the Term of nine hundred and ninety-nine Years, to begin, commence, and be computed, 'from the Date of the ſaid Letters Patent, from thence next enſuing, and fully to be complete and ended, 'at and under the yearly Rent of eight Pounds ſeventeen Shillings and Nine-pence, payable as therein is 'mentioned, and under divers Covenants and Agreements therein contained: And whereas the Directors 'and acting Guardians of the Poor within the ſaid Iſle of Wight, from Time to Time choſen and elected 'under and by virtue of the ſaid Act, have made a conſiderable Progreſs in erecting a Houſe of Induſtry, 'together with all other convenient Buildings for the Lodging and Employment of the Poor, as thereby 'directed, and in carrying into Execution the other Powers thereby to them granted; but find, that by 'reaſon of the Inſufficiency of the Sum of Money they are authoriſed to borrow for the Purpoſes of the 'ſaid Act, (and which they have already taken up and borrowed) and on Account of ſome Defects there-'in, the good Purpoſes intended by the ſaid Act cannot be completely effected without the further Aid of 'Parliament: And whereas the Purpoſes thereby intended might be better effected, if the ſeveral Clauſes, 'Powers, and Regulations, for the good Government of the Poor of the ſaid Iſland, already made and 'provided by the ſaid Act, and hereby further intended to be made and provided, were reduced into one 'Law;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Corporation erected by the above-recited Act, by the Name of The Guardians of the Poor within the Iſle of Wight, ſhall for ever, in Fact and in Name, be one Body Politic and Corporate in Law, to all Intents and Purpoſes; and ſhall have perpetual Succeſſion, and a Common Seal, and ſhall be, and be called, The Guardians of the Poor within the Iſle of Wight, and ſhall be enabled to ſue and plead, and be ſued, by that Name, in all Courts and Places of Judicature within that Part of Great Britain called England; and by that Name ſhall and may, without Licence in Mortmain, purchaſe, take, or receive, any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Gift, Alienation, or Demiſe, of any Perſon or Perſons, for any Eſtate or Intereſt whatſoever; and all Perſons whatſoever are hereby enabled to convey or deviſe the ſame, and to give or bequeath any Money, Goods, and Chattels whatſoever, for the Uſe and Benefit of the Corporation aforeſaid.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to enable the Commiſſioners of Sewers for ſeveral Limits in the Eaſtern Parts of the County of Kent, more effectually to drain and improve the Lands and Grounds within the General Vallies.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS there are in the Vallies from Fordwich-bridge to Sandwich-haven, in the County of 'Kent (commonly called The General Vallies), upwards of ſeven thouſand Acres of valuable and 'improveable Arable Lands, Marſh Lands, Meadow Lands, and Low Grounds, within the Limits of the 'Commiſſion of Sewers herein after mentioned; and, although conſiderable Sums of Money have for 'ſeveral Years paſt been annually raiſed and expended in draining the ſaid Lands and Grounds, they are 'frequently overflowed: And whereas, if the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the Time being for the ſeveral 'Limits herein after particularly deſcribed, in the Eaſtern Parts of the ſaid County of Kent, were im-'powered to make a proper Cut or Drain from the River Stour, at or near the Salt-works at Stonar, into 'Sandwich-haven, the Lands within the ſaid General Vallies would be much better and more effectually 'drained, and at leſs Expence, than they have been for ſeveral Years paſt: And whereas the Commiſ-'ſioners of Sewers for the ſaid Limits are willing and deſirous to make the ſaid Cut or Drain, and ſuch 'other Works as ſhall be neceſſary for the better and more effectual draining the Lands and Grounds 'within the ſaid General Vallies; but Doubts have ariſen whether they have ſufficient Powers, by the 'Laws now in being relating to Sewers, to effect the ſame: And whereas the draining of the ſaid Lands 'and Grounds will not only be of great Benefit to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, but alſo of public 'Utility;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the Time being, for the ſeveral Limits between Merſham, Aſhford, Chart, and Canterbury, and between Canterbury, Fordwich, Chiſlett, Reculver, and the Town and Port of Sandwich, and the Liberties thereof, and within the whole Iſle of Thanet, and within the whole Lath of Saint Auſtin's, and between Deal, Eaſtry, Wingham, and Sandwich, and between Hernehill, Whitſtable, and Seaſalter, and in the Borders or Confines of the ſame, and in Merſham, Aſhford, Chart, City of Canterbury, and the Liberties thereof, and in Sandwich and in the Liberties thereof, and in Graveney and Hernehill aforeſaid, and in Brokeſbridge and Fordſborne, in the Eaſtern Parts of the County of Kent, or in the Borders or Confines of the ſame, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered to make a Cut or Drain at or near the Salt-works at Stonar, in the ſaid County of Kent, from the River Stour aforeſaid, into Sandwich-haven, of ſuch Dimenſions as they ſhall think fit; and from Time to Time to cleanſe, ſcour, widen, deepen, alter, maintain, and ſupport the ſame in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think proper, ſo that the ſaid Cut or Drain ſhall never exceed forty Feet in Width; and alſo to make, raiſe, maintain, and ſupport, ſuch ſufficient and proper Banks, and all ſuch other Works on the Sides of the ſaid Cut or Drain, as they ſhall think neceſſary; and to make proper and convenient Floodgates within the ſaid Cut or Drain (each Floodgate not to exceed four Feet ſix Inches in Width); and the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall have full Power and Authority over all and ſingular the ſaid Works to be made, raiſed, erected, and ſet up, by virtue of this Act; and ſhall and may from Time to Time alter, remove, repair, rebuild, enlarge, widen, deepen, ſcour, and cleanſe the ſame, paying to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Corporate, Politic, or Collegiate, as ſhall or may have a Right or Property in or to any Lands or Grounds through which the intended Cut or Drain ſhall be made, or from which any Earth ſhall be dug or taken, or through or upon which any ſuch Banks and other Works as aforeſaid ſhall be made, raiſed, erected, built, or ſet up, his, her, or their Guardian, Truſtee, or Committee, or any Perſon or Perſons claiming in his, her, or their Right, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money for the Damages they ſhall reſpectively ſuſtain thereby, as ſhall be aſcertained and fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, who have full Power and Authority to aſcertain and fix ſuch the Amount thereof, notwithſtanding their being Owners or Occupiers of Lands or Eſtates lying within the ſaid General Vallies: And in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers and ſuch Owners or Proprietors cannot agree touching ſuch Recompence and Compenſation, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and are hereby required to cauſe a Jury of the County of Kent to be ſummoned to aſcertain and fix the Money to be paid for the Lands and Premiſes ſo made uſe of for making the ſaid Cut or Drain or other Works as aforeſaid; and in caſe the Jury give a Verdict for the ſame, or for a leſs Sum than was offered by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Lands or Premiſes as aforeſaid ſhall bear all the Expences attending the Jury; but if a Verdict ſhall be given for a greater Sum than was offered by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers to ſuch Owner or Proprietor as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall bear all the Expences attending ſuch Jury, any Thing in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall not proceed in ſuch Works until ſuch Money ſo aſcertained by the Commiſſioners, or in caſe the Proprietors of ſuch Lands ſhall refuſe to accept the ſame, then ſuch Sum as ſhall be aſcertained and ſettled by the ſaid Jury, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, or legally tendered in Payment and Satisfaction unto ſuch Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, as aforeſaid.

'III. And whereas a Cut is already nearly made and completed, through certain Lands of John Lord 'Viſcount Dudley and Ward, at Stonar aforeſaid, between the River Stour and Sandwich-haven, into which 'Cut a Penſtock or Drain from the Salt-works belonging to the ſaid Lord Viſcount Dudley and Ward 'empties itſelf, and it is neceſſary for the ſaid Salt-works that the ſaid Penſtock or Drain ſhould always 'remain free and open: And whereas the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers may think proper to make uſe of 'the ſaid Cut for the Purpoſes of this Act,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Work ſhall be done or made, by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, which ſhall in any-wiſe prevent or obſtruct the free Courſe of the Water through the ſaid Penſtock from the Salt-works at Stonar, but that the ſame ſhall have a free Paſſage into the ſaid Cut, and ſhall be under the ſole Direction and Management of the Owner or Occupier of the ſaid Salt-works for the Time being.

Banks on the South Side the Cut to be the Property of the Owner of the Lands whereon the ſame ſhall be made.

'VII. And whereas it will be neceſſary, for the Accommodation of Paſſengers, that a Bridge ſhould be 'built over the ſaid intended Cut or Drain;' be it therefore further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required to erect and build, or cauſe to be erected or built, a good and ſubſtantial Carriage-bridge where the ſaid intended Cut or Drain croſſes or interſects the Road leading from the Town of Sandwich to the Iſle of Thanet, or within ten Yards of the ſame; and that the Paſſage or Road over the ſaid Bridge ſhall be made, and at all Times remain, fourteen Feet broad at the leaſt; and the ſaid Bridge ſhall be free to all Perſons whomſoever; and that no Perſon ſhall be ſubject or liable to the Payment of any Toll or Pontage whatſoever for paſſing or repaſſing over the ſaid Bridge, either on Foot, or with Horſes, Cattle, or Carriages, or any other Thing whatſoever; and that the Expences attending the building the ſaid Bridge ſhall be defrayed out of ſuch Money as ſhall be raiſed and received by virtue of this Act; and the ſaid Bridge ſhall at all Times thereafter be repaired, ſupported, and maintained, by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, and the Expences thereof defrayed out of the Scots and Sums of Money hereafter to be raiſed by them within the ſaid General Vallies: Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall not make the ſaid Cut, or any Part thereof, in or acroſs the ſaid Road, until ſuch Time as they ſhall have made and perfected ſuch Bridge, or ſhall have made or left a convenient Paſſage for Accommodation of his Majeſty's Subjects uſing the ſaid Road.
